Lodge Says He's Not A Candidate, Can't Be Drafted

WASHINGTON (AP) — Henry Cabot Lodge's return from South Viet Nam might offer Republicans a choice of candidates to oppose Sen. Barry Goldwater for the GOP presidential nomination.

Lodge announced in Saigon Tuesday he was quitting his ambassadorial post and coming home because he felt it was his "duty to do everything that I can to help Gov. Scranton to win for president."

Later, he said "there are no hidden meanings" in his decision to return to the United States and he is "not a candidate at all." He added, "I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted."

Lodge's decision to jump into presidential politics was widely heralded by the backers of Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton as a major development in his efforts to win delegates away from Goldwater.

Scranton said he was delighted by Lodge's decision to return and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign." He said he hoped to have Lodge "go around and tell the people why they should be for me."

Supporters of Goldwater, who has more than enough publicy committed convention votes to win the nomination if his delegates stand pat, generally discounted Lodge's move.

Goldwater, in a statement issued Tuesday, avoided any reference to Lodge's declaration that he would campaign for Scranton.

Instead, the Arizonan said, "Ambassador Lodge is to be congratulated for bearing up this long under such adverse conditions. The Johnson-McNamara program of indecision and vacillation has made it impossible for him to carry out his ambassadorial functions properly and undoubtedly motivated his resignation." Lodge gave no hint of such a factor in his letter of resignation.

While nobody questioned the sincerity of Lodge's commitment to back Scranton, some party strategists noted there were elements present that could lead to unpredictable developments.

This would be true particularly, they said, if there was a resurgence of Lodge's popularity in the national polls. These listedhim as top choice of the rank and file for the nomination before he ran second to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the May 15 Oregon primary. Some polls still give Lodge high ratings.

Scranton, whose name was on the Oregon ballot, got only 2 per cent of the vote. His meager total there and his low rating in the national polls were viewed by his friends as the natural result of his position then that he was not a candidate and that he would only accept a nomination tendered him as the result of a genuine draft he did not think would come about.

Subsequently Scranton announced he was an active candidate against Goldwater and most of Lodge's backers said they would support the Pennsylvania governor.

One of Scranton's principal problems in his belated scramble for the nomination has been that many Republicans just do not know much about him and haven't learned where he stands on the issues.

As the 1960 GOP vice-presidential nominee, Lodge has general recognition among the party organization workers whose voices will be heard in delegation caucuses and whose votes will be recorded in the convention balloting.

Whether a significant number of them might decide that Lodge rather than Scranton, was the nominee they wanted remains a question to be answered at the convention.

Dulles Probes Mystery Of 3 Missing Workers

Taylor Due On Viet Job In 2 Weeks

Lodge's Successor Expected To Set Up Unified Command

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, who has never known defeat, flies to war-torn South Viet Nam soon to take over as U.S. ambassador. He is expected to provide a single tight and unified command over U.S. civilian and military efforts.

The soldier-diplomat was named to the Saigon post Tuesday by President Johnson after the resignation of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge. Taylor plans to leave for his new post in 10 days or two weeks.

Lodge said he was coming home to help Pennsylvania Gov. William W. Scranton try to win the GOP presidential nomination.

In Saigon Tuesday night, Lodge declared: "I am not a candidate at all and I am not going back at all in order to connive at anything for myself. I cannot be drafted and there are no hidden meanings."

Scranton said he was delighted at Lodge's decision and added, "This is another big boost for this rapidly expanding campaign."

Johnson's selection of Taylor for the hot spot assignment won strong approval on Capitol Hill. Democrats and Republicans joined in predicting overwhelming Senate confirmation.

In South Viet Nam, Taylor will have under him two old friends in key spots—Lt. Gen. William C. Westmoreland as U.S. military commander and veteran diplomat U. Alexis Johnson as his political deputy.

Westmoreland, one of the most promising of the Army's younger generals, has been considered a "Taylor man" for about a decade. Westmoreland served on Taylor's staff when the new ambassador was the Army's chief in the mid-1950s.

Johnson, deputy undersecretary of state for political affairs, has been close to Taylor for about 30 years. He said in an interview, "We have no magic answers but we are determined to do our best."

Stepping in behind Taylor as the new chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff will be another Taylor "disciple," Gen. Earle G. Wheeler, who now is Army chief of staff.

THE CHARRED REMAINS of a station wagon which belonged to three civil rights workers, missing since Sunday, are towed away from a spot 15 miles northeast of Philadelphia, Miss. The burned car was found about 50 feet off Highway 21. It was towed to a Philadelphia garage for further inspection by federal agents and officers of the Mississippi Highway Patrol. (UPI Telephoto)

FBI Finds Charred Car Near Swamp

House-To-House Search Conducted By Highway Patrol

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP) —Allen W. Dulles, former chief of the Central Intelligence Agency, flies to Mississippi today on a White House mission to look into the mysterious disappearance of three young civil rights workers.

The charred hulk of the station wagon used by the trio was found by FBI agents late Tuesday at the edge of a swamp off a lonely road northeast of this central Mississippi town.

Philadelphia is the seat of justice for Neshoba County, called "Bloody Neshoba" by Mississippians for its history of settling feuds by gunfire.

The FBI clamped a lid on most of its investigation.

A Mississippi highway patrolman told a newsman: "The FBI has taken over entirely."

Highway patrol units conducted a house-to-house search late into the night. More patrolmen were expected today.

Missing are Andy Goodman, 20, and Michael Schwerner, 24, both of New York City, and James Cheney, 22, Negro from nearby Meridian.

They were last seen Sunday night in Philadelphia after Cheney paid a $20 fine for speeding.

The White House announced that President Johnson had ordered Dulles to the state to coordinate the probe.

Dulles will confer with Gov. Paul B. Johnson, other top state officials and the FBI on the progress of the investigation.

Gov. Johnson, who earlier had told a news conference the highway patrol would search unrelentingly for the missing youths, said he would welcome Dulles.

"So long as Mr. Dulles is objective, I have no doubt that he will find that law and order prevail," the governor said.

The station wagon was found about 100 feet from State 21, 15 miles northeast of Philadelphia, where Owl Creek backs away to form a backwater slough.

There was speculation that the bodies of the three civil rights workers were somewhere under the dark, cold waters.

6-Day Work Week Asked

President's Call Irks House GOP

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's call to Congress to go on a six-day work week until next month's Republican national Convention brought angry protests today from GOP House leaders.

"It just isn't fair play," said Republican Leader Charles A. Halleck of Indiana.

"This looks like an attempt by the President of the United States to sabotage the Republican convention," commented Rep. Melvin R. Laird of Wisconsin, chairman of the GOP Platform Committee.

The committee starts its sessions in San Francisco July 6, one week before the convention opens. Many members of Congress are on the committee. Many others want to air their views before it.

Republicans had counted on the House being in recess the entire week starting July 6, with the Senate holding only token sessions.

The recess outlook has dimmed because of Johnson's reported insistence that Congress enact the civil rights bill and start action on his antipoverty program before the convention.

The President said at a news conference Tuesday he wants Congress to work longer and act on about 30 "desirable" proposals before adjournment.

He prodded the legislators to give his proposals their "full attention six days a week until the Republican convention" and then return to work after the convention.

Leaders had planned to seek final adjournment before the Democratic convention opens in Atlantic City Aug. 24.

Johnson listed these matters as among those he wants Congress to act on:

Mass transportation, wilderness preservation, area redevelopment, education assistance, Securities Act amendments, water pollution control, foreign aid, federal aid for hospital construction, extension of the food stamp program, pay increases for government officials and employes;

Extension of the debt limit and emergency excise taxes, the international coffee agreement, aid for highway construction, interest equalization taxes on foreign investments, the antipoverty program, medical assistance for the elderly, rehabilitation of the Appalachian region, housing, nurse training assistance, immigration law revisions, land conservation, juvenile delinquency, sales of surplus food abroad and water resources research.

Valley Spared Damages In Heavy Storm

Other Ohio Areas Hit; City Benefits As Heat Wanes

The East Liverpool area had cooler temperatures today in the wake of a sudden thunderstorm early Tuesday night that caused no damage although it had an ominous appearance as it roared into the Ohio Valley.

The storm, which struck with gusty winds and a drenching rain, apparently was a fringe of a cold front that resulted in some damage elsewhere in the state.

Parts of Ohio had been alerted late yesterday to "severe and damaging windstorms" and the local storm moved in with a wide and deep bank of black clouds streaked with lightning.

The thunderheads passed over quickly, followed by high winds, then came a driving rain whipped by the gusty winds estimated at times at 30-mph. velocity.

Temperatures dropped quickly as the storm moved eastward, bringing the first relief from the day's hot and humid temperatures. The rain here lasted hardly 10 minutes but other communities had up to 30 minutes of heavy downpour.

Montgomery Dam at Ohioview reported 0.2 inch precipitation; the Stratton Dam had 0.25 inch but the Emsworth Dam above Midland recorded 0.48 inch.

The Ohioview dam said the storm dropped the mercury to 72 degrees in a few hours after the sultry 92 reached at 4 p. m. It was down to 86 about the time the storm struck.

Storms caused property damage from Ashtabula in the far northeastern part of the state

River Body Believed Missing Woman, 80

The body of an elderly woman found afloat in the Ohio River near the Newell Bridge shortly before noon today was believed to be that of Mrs. Stella Sayre, 80, who vanished Monday morning from Geraldine's Rest Home on Thompson Pl.

Police were advised of the discovery of the body at 11:43. At 12:04, an ambulance was dispatched to the scene and Dr. Roy C. Costello, deputy county coroner, was summoned. Officers emphasized that the identity of the body has not been established.

Officers Cite Driver, 21, In 2-Way Crash

A 21-year-old motorist was cited by police after a collision at Walnut and E. 3rd Sts. Tuesday night at 10:53 that damaged two autos.

The halted 1956 sedan of Edward L. Hayhurst, 34, of Brighton Ave., Dixonville, was struck by a turning 1961 sedan operated by Robert S. Lowe, 21, of 1006 Avondale St., officers said.

Hayhurst told police his auto was halted on Walnut St. when Lowe failed to negotiate a turn off of E. 3rd St., hitting his car's left door and rear quarter panel.

Lowe told police he was traveling at moderate speed when he thought he saw an acquaintance in a service station on the south side of E. 3rd at Walnut. As a result, he said, he failed to see Hayhurst's car until too late to avoid a collision.

Lowe was fined $10 and costs

$33,358 Granted For Master Plan

East Liverpool has been awarded a $33,358 federal grant to pay two-thirds of the $50,037 cost of preparing a "master plan" to guide future growth and development of the city, Rep. Wayne L. Hays announced today in Washington.

The 18th District congressman said he was advised through the White House the grant was approved by the Housing and Home Finance Agency and the Urban Renewal Administration.

APPROVAL of the grant will clear the way for Carroll V. Hill Associates of Pittsburgh and Columbus to begin work—probably in July—on the detailed job of preparing the plan.

Carroll V. Hill of Columbus, who heads the professional planning concern, told the City Planning Commission here a week ago that word of approval of the federal grant was expected momentarily. He said that would clear the way for the actual planning job to get under way in July.

Rep. Hays said the sum set aside for East Liverpool is part of a combined grant of $86,120 which the two federal agencies approved for the Ohio Department of Development, the state agency concerned primarily with encouraging location of new industry and renewing the facilities of older communities such as East Liverpool.

OF THE sum granted to the state agency, $33,358 is earmarked for East Liverpool's plan and $52,762 is set aside for similar planning work in Marion, he explained.

Marion's grant was larger because the overall cost of the plan is set at $79,143. In each instance, federal funds will pay two-third of the cost.

East Liverpool expects to invest about $12,200 in the plan's cost, with state funds furnishing the balance. Completion of the plan is expected in two to three years.

The start of preparation of the "master plan" will mean the culmination of about seven years' work on the part of the Planning Commission. It originally started discussion of the

A 62-year-old Norwalk man, one of four persons hurt when their car veered off Route 170 and overturned near Pancakes Hill Saturday, died Tuesday night at Salem City Hospital.

Merle McGee, retired furniture firm employe who suffered a broken back and other injuries in the mishap, died at 7:30 p. m.

He was driver of the 1964 auto which went into a ditch then overturned.

Also hurt were his wife, Mrs. Frances McGee, 61, who received a bruised leg; Ray Keller, 63, of East Palestine, who suffered cuts of the leg and a bruised shoulder, and his wife, Mrs. Dorothy Keller, 58, sister of the victim, who received a back sprain and fractured ribs.

The group was returning from a visit with Mrs. Charles Mathess of Wellsville, another sister of the victim.

The death marked the 11th traffic fatality in Columbiana County this year, the same as at this time in 1963.

Mr. McGee was born in East Palestine Dec. 13, 1901, to the late Irvin McGee and Olive May McGee. He had resided at Norwalk about 30 years.

He was a retired foreman for the Norwalk Upholstery Co.

He was a 32nd Degree Mason.

Falling Tree Injures 2 In State Road Crew

A Salem man and another of Lisbon, both employes of the Ohio Highway Department, were injured this morning when a tree fell on them while at work on the Pancake-Midland Rd. east of Route 170.

In Salem City Hospital are John Zilske, 20, of Salem and James Smith, 22, of Lisbon.

Zilske has back injuries and Smith, neck and shoulder injuries.

A truck caught on the branches of the dead tree and pulled it over on the pair who were at work on blacktopping. Branches broke the fall of the tree somewhat, witnesses said.

Hancock Board Airs Offers

Bids Under Estimates For Kitchens At Schools

Bids from four firms on installing equipment in new central kitchens for the first hot-lunch programs in the Hancock County school system were opened by the County Board of Education Tuesday night, and several were below the preliminary estimates.

The firms bid on such equipment as dishwashers, ovens, mixers, meat slicers and tables for the central kitchens at Chester and Weirton, which will headquarter the hot lunch programs.

Earlier, the board had estimated the cost of equipping the Chester kitchen at $92,542 and the one at Weirton at $115,486.

The apparent low bidder was Commercial Appliance Co., with $82,895 for the Chester kitchen, and $101,090 for Weirton.

Other bidders were Bernard Gloekler Co., $90,000 for Chester and $107,700 for Weirton; Cervo Equipment Co., $86,440 for Chester and $104,535 for Weirton and Great Lakes Hotel Co., $92,121 for Chester and $110,612 for Weirton.

However, the Great Lakes firm advised Supt. Robert H. Hall this morning that its bid is to be raised a total of $2,020.

The firms filed separate bids on each piece of kitchen equipment and then totaled the costs. The board may pick out the low-cost items in each bid for purchase.

The bids were turned over to Kellam & Foley, architects, for study and tabulation. Supt. Hall said the board hopes to award contracts July 6.

The board also authorized the architects to obtain prices on cost of installation of resilient flooring in the central kitchens to cover the bare concrete floor.

Supt. Hall said the board accepted the new school buildings at Chester, Oak Glen and Weirton from the general contractor, Knowlton & Co., and accepted Sayre Electric Co.'s work at the Chester primary school.

The buildings were not accepted as far as work by the electrical contractor, Stark Electric of Huntington, is concerned on the Oak Glen and

May End Old Complaints

New Water Line To Boost Pressure For Sunnyside

The city water department's distribution crew began laying pipe Tuesday in a project designed to boost the pressure and volume of service in the Sunnyside district of West End and eliminate long-standing complaints of lack of an adequate supply in fire hydrants in the residential neighborhood.

The new 8-inch main taps into another 8-inch tap line on St. Clair Ave. at Grant St. — at the corner of the former Grant St. School property — and will extend west on Grant St., cross Dresden Ave. and link into an 8-inch main on W. 9th St.

For years, city firemen have complained of inadequate volume of water on the hydrants in the Sunnyside area. In several instances in recent years, firemen have been forced to lay long stretches of hose to reach hydrants with an adequate water supply when fighting fires in the hillside area.

Water Supt. Donald T. Duke said the primary cause of the "drought" for the hydrants and householders alike was the fact that the 8-inch line on W. 9th St. was fed off a 4-inch line that runs off Peake St. The 4-inch line simply could not feed an adequate volume of water into the 8-inch main, he pointed out.

Installation of the new Grant St. line also will aid service in the Peake St. and Grant St. areas, the superintendent said.

At the west end of the project, the new line will tie in with the W. 9th St. main at a point near a valve about 40 to 50 feet off Dresden Ave.

Council approved an appropriation for the project several months ago. Cost of the new pipe has been set at approximately $3,700. Under a new contract let a few weeks ago, the water department will pay $2.72 a foot for 8-inch pipe during 1964-65. Under the prior contract, the cost was $2.92.

Duke explained the labor cost will not be known exactly until the project is completed, as the work is being done by the city's own crew.

He said he expects the work will "greatly increase" pressure

Notices Given 13 More For Tax Charges

Summonses have been served on 13 more persons notifying them to appear in Municipal Court Thursday, July 2, at 9 a. m. on charges of violation of the city income tax ordinance.

Bailiff Wilbert P. Taylor said today he has completed the task of serving the papers on the defendants, named in affidavits filed Thursday by Tax Commissioner D. G. Wilkinson.

Each is accused of two violations — failure to file a final return on 1963 income and failure to furnish an estimate on 1964 earnings. The deadline for both reports was April 15.

The defendants are:

Percy Cook, 714 Pennsylvania Ave.; Jacqueline Bell, 517 Virginia Ave.; John E. Holland, 1240 Pennsylvania Ave.; Robert N. Prescott, 915 Kent St.; Joseph Brown, 1073 Elmtree St.; John H. Vaughn, 1213 Erie St.; Ernest Montgomery, 2130 Pennsylvania Ave.

'Project 70' Bill OK'd In Pennsylvania

HARRISBURG, (AP) — Gov. Scranton signed two of his administration's major pieces of legislation into law Tuesday—enabling legislation for Project 70 and Eminent Domain revision.

The governor put his signature to the measures before departing for more campaigning in his belated bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

The Project 70 measure, implementing the state's $70 million open space and recreation program approved in a special referendum last November, is effective immediately.

The program was proposed three years ago by former Gov. David L. Lawrence, a Democrat, to purchase land for future recreation use before it was absorbed by expanding cities and suburbs.

Land acquisition under the program is scheduled to be completed by 1970.

The program earmarks $30 million for acquisition, $20 million as matching grants for development of local parks and $10 million for new hunting and fishing sites.

The administration's eminent domain program, effective Sept. 1, is aimed at assuring property owners of speedy settlement for land seized by the state for public purposes.

The main provision guarantees that any public or private agency, with the exception of the State Highways Department, must pay landowners 100 per cent of the estimated value of property within 60 days after filing a declaration of condemnation.

The new law also provides for payment of moving expenses for owners and tenants forced out by property seizures.

Another major feature would require the state for the first time to pay businessmen up to $5,000 for loss of "good will" of established customers.

We're Not Surprised

Henry Cabot Lodge is coming home, having resigned after not quite a year on the job as U.S. ambassador to South Viet Nam.

This announcement by President Johnson probably caught many of our countrymen off guard in view of Lodge's vigorous denial of a New York Times report earlier this month that he would, indeed, be home before the July 13 GOP National Convention.

We're not among those who are raising their eyebrows, however. We took Ambassador Lodge's denials with a substantial sprinkling of salt.

This newspaper pointed out a week before the Lodge resignation was announced officially that denials such as he was mouthing then have become something less than gospel.

We pointed out then that if such repudiations were to be swallowed whole, we would have had to believe Gov. Scranton would not seek the GOP presidential nomination, that the U.S. was winning the war in South Viet Nam and that our U2 spy plane could not have been shot down by the Russians.

Ambassador Lodge's letter of resignation cited "personal reasons" for his action and President Johnson accepted it with "regret."

At the moment there is no clear political or strategic implication in this development, nor is there reason to believe a policy disagreement triggered the resignation.

Perhaps Mr. Lodge will have an explanation when he returns.

Or perhaps he'll have a denial or two which may shed some light on the situation.

Waiting For The Tools

This week's approval of a long-awaited federal grant to help pay for East Liverpool's "Master plan" poses an immediate problem for the city planners—will a study of the land use character of the city be prepared in time to aid in selection of schools sites?

The board of education, which is seeking a $3.3 million bond issue in the fall for a new high school and three elementary buildings, recently promised the City Planning Commission "100 per cent cooperation."

There can be no doubt about the urgency for taking action on submitting the issue to a vote to meet the deadline for getting approval of the bond issue in order to qualify for the state grant of $990,000.

THERE CAN be no doubt about the need for starting construction of the schools, once approval is received, in order to provide a modern educational system as soon as possible for our young people.

The board and school officials have analyzed the school need pattern with their own studies. But there may be additional considerations in terms of traffic flow, parking, future city development, industrial zoning, recreation facilities and other patterns projected 20 years from now which city planners could evaluate and use to bring new suggestions for school sites.

Locations of school buildings have been established in the past with unhappy results. If a professional planning organization can undertake a preliminary land use survey which could be completed in time to be utilized by the board, such a vital guide could prove of inestimable value to East Liverpool.

PLANNING FOR the city's future effectively rests on such keystones as the schools, residential areas, industrial sites, streets and highways, utilities — all interrelated and coordinated.

If city taxpayers' money is to be spent on preparing for the city's future, the tools of planning should include the schools if these tools are available, because the school tax payers should also be getting their money's worth in the years to come.

To date, the board of education and the planning commission have shown a great degree of understanding of each others problems and goals. We hope this will continue.

Geneva College Project

A $15 million development program launched this week by Geneva College at Beaver Falls is welcomed throughout the district as another advancement in the field of higher education.

The program, which will take ten years to complete, is the largest in the history of the 116-year-old college which has long served many residents of the East Liverpool area and Beaver County.

In the first five years, the college plans to build a $1.9 million science and engineering center, a $648,000 addition to the library, a $1 million classroom for the humanities and social sciences, renovation of Old Main as an administration building, a new $640,000 chapel, new housing for men and women students and an increased operating budget from $1.7 million to $4 million.

The college expects to increase its enrollment 50 per cent. But more important, the officials aim at enlarging its educational capabilities.

The brick and mortar project is impressive. The intent behind it — to keep Geneva abreast of the ever-increasing need for education — is even more impressive.

Glimmer Of Hope For Cyprus

Although the explosive Cyprus dispute remains very much alive, there was reason for hope this week that the United States will at least be able to buy more time for its efforts to ease tensions between the Turkish and Greek communities.

It may not be clear for some time what, if anything, President Johnson will be able to do to effect anything approaching a lasting solution, but his separate talks with the Greek and Turkish premiers signal at least a tentative step forward.

BEYOND the talks there were other glimmers of hope that the boiling Mediterranean island struggle can be kept from erupting into a catastrophe threatening unity of the West and world peace.

The U.N. Security Council's decision to extend for three months its peacekeeping force on the troubled island should give the United States the time it needs to try to encourage direct negotiations between the leaders of the two countries.

There was encouragement, too, in Turkish Premier Inonu's refusal to resign in the wake of only the flimsiest parliamentary support for his moderate policy. This averted a government collapse which almost certainly would have opened the way for direct intervention by Turkish extremists anxious to end the weary conflict even if it means touching off full-scale war.

PRESIDENT Johnson's sole immediate objective in his talks with Turkey's Inonu and Greek Premier Papandreou has to be to keep them from resorting to military action.

While there are hopeful signs for progress, the President will have to move carefully and efficiently in his mediation efforts, for U.S. prestige is at stake.

A failure now to achieve some progress could open the way to Russian intervention. And if there is one thing the United States does not need it is a Cuba in the Mediterranean.

Success Story

By Truman Twill

It is certain that the college kids "invading" Mississippi this summer to help register Negro electors who never have been allowed to vote before will be manhandled.

The girls will be rushed up by beefed-up bully-boy squadrons especially assembled to cope with the registration project. The boys will be given the special treatment that strong-arm specialists in the Deep South save for "trespassers" who barge in where they're not welcome.

This is known to the college kids.

What they're doing calls for the kind of courage their critics have been accusing them of lacking — the kind of audacity that other critics keep wishing they didn't have — the foolhardiness that still other critics insist will be their undoing.

What the effect on Mississippi will be is vague. It is hard to believe a college kid from a Northern state is going to get any farther in this most backward of the remnants of the Confederacy than the nearest pokey.

BUT THE EFFECT on the kid will be momentous and monumental. If he survives the experience in one piece and comes home, he will know why there is an irreconcilable difference between himself and people who manhandled him "down South."

Such people are not unique. They exist in all states of the Union. What is notable about them in Mississippi is the fact their attitude is reflected by their leading public figures. It is good politics to preach race hatred in Mississippi.

That is the difference between race hatred in the South and race hatred elsewhere — that in the South it pays off politically and elsewhere any political figure who preaches it is making a bid for oblivion.

This has come about because of the Negro's right to vote. He cannot be pushed around when he can retaliate at the polls.

NO DOUBT about it, the Mississippi bully-boys will be itching for a chance to get their hands on Northern kids with the gall to nose in where they're not wanted. The kids will be lucky if some of them don't get killed or permanently crippled before it's over.

But likewise before it's over Mississippi will be lucky if it doesn't earn an all-time reputation for red-necked brutality and backwardness. Perhaps, on second thought, that's what the reigning political powers have been trying to do. If so, they're succeeding.

Investigation Needed In Guiana

By Victor Riesel

UNITED NATIONS

Mark down the "words" PYO and GAWU. They are "words" made up of the initials of Cuban-trained guerrilla youth and labor units which are cutting down anti-Communist allies of the United States with arson and bombs, guns and machetes, clubs and rocks.

Victor Riesel

They were created in British Guiana by avowedly pro-Castro, pro-Mao and pro-Soviet forces now in the final stage of their efforts to turn that small, coastal South American land into a Communist state — a network of Castroite airfields and a vast arms depot from which revolutionary movements across that continent would be launched.

Because the democratic forces are defending themselves and striking back, the chief of Communist operations in British Guiana, Premier Cheddi Jagan, has cabled U.N. Secretary General U Thant charging the freedom fighters with genocide.

He and his wife, Janet, who as secretary controls the pro-Peking Peoples Progressive party (PPP) there, plan to fly to the U.N. They want the Committee on Colonialism to investigate the lethal fighting in British Guiana.

THEY CERTAINLY should have an investigation. An objective probe would find the following:

The Jagans are using a traditional Communist power play. When recently it appeared inevitable that the country would get full independence only under a proportional representation election system which would drive out the provisional Communist government, the Jagans decided to seize the unions. With labor as a base they then could have paralyzed the nation and, with the help of Cuban storm troops, have ousted a newly elected regime.

But the British Guianese unions have long been anti-Communist. So last year the Jagan administration attempted to put over a "labor relations law" which would have given the temporary government the power to wipe out the legitimate unions and to set up a Communist labor front.

The anti-Communist federation, known as the Trades Union Council (TUC), struck for 80 days. Jagan's government tottered but was saved by activists trained in Cuba working through the Progressive Youth Organization (PYO).

Jagan abandoned his efforts to put through a "labor law" and instead decided to destroy the anti-Communist Trades Union Council piecemeal. The strongest of the 26 TUC affiliates is the Manpower Citizens Association (MPCA).

IT'S A UNION of 20,000 sugar workers which has always done well for its members. Its contracts with the sugar producers are good, containing for example, clauses which give workers free land and interest-free loans. These are repaid at the rate of $2 a week. And its members always have turned in a good day's work for a good day's pay.

This is the union Premier Jagan decided to break it would mean smashing the base of the entire anti-Communist TUC. So the Communist-controlled Peoples Progresive party launched GAWU — the Guyanese Agricultural Workers Union.

It has been denounced by labor leaders across the free world as a Communist weapon. Its president is a Jagan collaborator, PPP assemblyman Harry Lall. Its general secretary is Mrs. Jagan's intimate friend, Mrs. Philomena Sahoye.

On March 4, GAWU called for a general strike of the sugar plantations in an effort to crack the anti-Communist "Manpower" union. Lall, according to Latin American labor leaders and spokesmen for AFL-CIO President George Meany, warned plantation owners to sign up with the GAWU, or else ....

GAWU SENT the PYO squads —specialists trained in the same Cuban schools which turned out the military units for Zanzibar's revolution — to assault the non-Communists. The guerrillas were heavily armed with Cuban weapons smuggled into British Guana from Surinam (Dutch Guiana) on the east.

If anyone doubts Cuban disregard of Surinam's sovereignty, they need only contact the authorities in Paramaribo, its capital. I did this some time ago. They have considerable evidence of the Castro gun-running across their territory. So heavy has this activity become that Surinam leaders have now appealed to their mother country, the Netherlands, for military aid in guarding their borders and patroling their coast.

So let not the Jagans' charges of "genocide" against anti-Communist Guianese and against the United States and the British go unanswered. Let there be an inquiry. Let Jagan explain why a Cuban airforce commission was permitted to map his country for possible new airfields as well as to examine the existing ones.

LET THE JAGANS explain their relationship to a committee of Hungarian "technicians" which has roamed British Guiana for months. Let the Jagans explain their secret trips out of the country. Let's have a complete look at the documents exchanged between Jagan's group, Havana and Peking, as well as Moscow. Let's see to whom commitments were made by Jagan for the export of minerals vital to war production.

Let it be done swiftly while there still are some freedom fighters left.

Ruling On Communists

By David Lawrence

High Court Gives Party Members Travel Freedom

A majority of the members of the Supreme Court of the United States apparently are not ready to help their government fight the cold war effectively. They prefer technicalities to realities.

David Lawrence

In another of its sweeping decisions, the highest court in the land is willing to consider a member of the Communist party as no different from a member of the Democratic or Republican party or any other political organization of citizens.

Yet J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI, whose knowledge of the intricacies of espionage and acts of subversion is unequaled in this country, told Congress last January that the Communist party in this country is an agent of the Soviet government.

THE CONGRESS of the United States, recognizing this danger, passed a law forbidding the issuance of American passports to any members of the Communist organization in America. Now the Supreme Court of the United States has declared this law unconstitutional because it does not provide for proof in advance that the passport would be misused.

Only a Communist agent who is willing to tell ahead of time exactly what acts of espionage he may intend to commit or what information he may be getting ready to transmit to a foreign government could thus be prevented by law from getting a passport of the United States government.

Justice Goldberg, who wrote the opinion for the Supreme Court majority, declared that "freedom of travel is a constitutional liberty closely related to rights of free speech and association."

Justice Douglas, who concurred in this opinion, wrote as follows:

"Being a Communist certainly is not a crime; and while traveling may increase the likelihood of illegal events happening, so does being alive."

JUSTICE DOUGLAS added that war might be a condition for "serious curtailment of liberty," but unless there was a war, he could see no way of keeping a citizen from traveling inside or outside the country.

Justices Clark, Harlan and White in their dissenting opinion quoted from a statute passed by Congress in 1954 which stated that "the Communist party of the United States . . . is in fact an instrumentality of a conspiracy to overthrow the government of the United States."

"The right to travel is not absolute. Congress had ample evidence that use of passports by Americans belonging to the world Communist movement is security. . . .

In 1950 Congress determined, in the Subversive Activities Control Act, that foreign travel 'is a prerequisite for the carrying on of activities to further the purposes of the Communist movement.' The Congress had before it evidence that such passports by Communist party members:

1. "Enabled the leaders of the world Communist movement in Soviet Union to give orders to their comrades in the United States and to exchange vital secrets as well;

2. "Facilitated the training of American Communist leaders by experts in sabotage and the like in Moscow;

3. "Gave closer central control to the world Communist movement; and, of utmost importance,

4. "Provided world Communist leaders with passports for Soviet secret agents to use in the United States for espionage purposes.

"This evidence afforded the Congress a rational basis upon which to place the denial of passports to members of the Communist party in the United States.

"The denial is reasonably related to the national security. The degree of restraint upon travel is outweighed by the dangers to our very existence. The remedy adopted by the Congress is reasonably tailored to accomplish the purpose."

What the majority of the Supreme Court has said in the case, however, is law. So today the Department of State, the Department of Defense and the law-enforcement agencies of the United States government are thwarted in their attempts to protect the security of the United States by measures which would prevent Communist party members in this country from acting as a means of communication for the Soviet government.

Letters To The Editor

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

On the question of eligibility for the "Dollars For Scholars" grants, I would like to read the requirements.

When a student is an honor student and the only income of the family is a pension and another family of an average income but whose income is used for many outstanding debts, why is it that such students are not eligible for such grants?

I wonder if the name and what their family position is has any bearing on the eligibility as it is in many other things in this area?

I would appreciate the publication of this letter because I am certain that I am not the only donor who would like to be enlightened on this subject.

KATHRYN MILLER
660 St. Clair Ave.

EDITOR OF THE REVIEW:

Recipients of the "Dollars for Scholars" grants are chosen by a 21-member, representative Tri-State area committee on the basis of a set mathematical formula in which here is little area for subjective judgement.

According to the Citizens Scholarship Foundation, an independent survey firm investigates the family income of each applicant.

The formula provides for a certain amount of money for family expenses and for other youngsters in the family, and the money which should be available for the prospective college student is then determined.

This is the student's "need," and can represent up to 55 of the 110 points on which the selection basis of recipients is determined.

The student's scholastic record is also figured on another formula, and can provide up to 45 of the total points. Up to five points are allowed for leadership and citizenship characteristics in school and up to another five are granted for self support employment.

The students are then selected on the basis of this point system for each of the seven school districts, and the money alloted.

The selection committee determines the recipients without knowing the names on the applications. Since the need and scholarship qualifications are mathematically chosen, the only area in which the committee can exercise judgement is in determining the leadership qualifications and whether money earned in past employment was for self support or squandered without saving for an education.

The highest family income of a recipient this year was $8,800, but the family also had five other youngsters — including another in college — and consequently, on the basis of established points of need, scholarship, self support and leadership, was given a grant.

Many of the recipients had no income listed for their family because the father was out of work. Others had income only from relief sources or their parents were divorced or separated and had limited income.

Awarding of additional scholarships also figures in the selection. Students may receive other scholarship aid up to the amount granted by the Foundation.

There has been no indication that "name" or "position" has any influence whatsoever in the choosing of the scholarship winners by the Foundation, and, because the grants are made by public representatives and under the full attention of the residents of the Tri-State Area, it is not anticipated that the Foundation would risk future support for this worthy program by jeopardizing its excellent relationship with its donors.

Woman Avoids Fine On Speeding Charge

LISBON — A woman driver was given a suspended fine Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald and two others forfeited bonds in State Highway Patrol cases. The fine of $5 for Nancy Louise Gall, 20, of East Rochester was suspended but she paid $6.50 costs in a speeding case.

Forfeiting were Delmer E. Collier, 47, of Tarentum, Pa., $15 for speeding, and William Kotyk, 52, of Canonsburg, $20 for passing at an intersection.

Joseph Mitchell, 44, of Steubenville received a suspended $10 fine for hitch-hiking. He was committed to the County Jail in lieu of $6.50 bond.

More Talks Set In Effort To End Papers' Strike

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Another negotiating session was on tap today in an attempt to end the city's 16-day-old newspaper blackout.

Today's meeting, the fourth since the strike against the Dispatch Printing Co. began June 8, was to start at 10 a.m. as the strike entered its 17th day.

Management representatives and officials of the striking printers' and mailers' unions met with federal mediator George H. Bell for 4½ hours Tuesday.

After the session broke up, Bell refused to say if any progress was made. "I wouldn't want to say one way or the other," Bell said.

Since the two unions, affiliates of the International Typographical Union set up picket lines June 8, the evening Dispatch, the morning Citizen-Journal and the Columbus Star, a weekly tabloid, have failed to publish.

The unions walked out because of disatisfaction with the progress of negotiations over a management proposal to replace the unions' current pension plan with another.

The Dispatch Printing Co. publishes the Dispatch and Star and handles the printing and circulation operations of the Citizen-Journal, a Scripps-Howard paper.

Milkmen Surprise Auto Agency Burglar

LISBON -- Milkmen on their early - morning rounds surprised a burglar at the Art Hole Plymouth garage at East Rochester but he got $1.50 in pennies.

Harry Lippincott and Jeff Waseman of the Lippincott Dairy saw a man bring three tires around the garage to the front about 5:55 a. m.

They continued their delivery but one hurried to a public phone booth and called Minerva police, who radioed the sheriff's office.

Deputy Herman Wellman arrived but found no one in the building. It was believed the burglar had noticed the milkmen and fled, leaving the tires and a 2-gallon can of oil in front of the building. The owner said a preliminary check indicated only the pennies were missing.

Weir High buildings as work is not yet completed, Supt. Hall said. H. E. Newman Co., mechanical contractor, also has additional work remaining on all three buildings.

In other business, the board acted on requests, employed three new teachers, and accepted the resignations of two others.

The Oak Glen Band was authorized to participate in the Chester volunteer firemen's parade July 31, or Aug. 1 in event of rain. Carrie Lynn Newbrough, a 1964 Oak Glen graduate, was authorized to attend the school for mathematics and science credits next term.

Use of the athletic field in New Cumberland was authorized the Lions Club in the county seat for a free fair Aug. 26-29. Oak Glen Band Parents are authorized use of the Wells Junior High athletic field for a carnival July 9-11.

Hired as new teachers were Miss Mary Alice Spence of Steubenville and Mrs. May S. Byrom of Weirton, elementary, and Miss Ellen Joseph of Weirton, chemistry and biology.

The resignations of Mrs. Jacqueline Templeton of Weirton Broadview and Miss Charlotte Ewaskey, a permanent substitute, were accepted.

Supt. Hall advised the board that 153 pupils are enrolled in secondary summer school work, "one of the best summer schools we have had."

Supt. Hall described as "good news" a letter from Harlan Justice, state insurance commissioner, who said insurance rates in West Virginia will be substantially reduced July 1 on public buildings, like armories, hospitals, city property, county proprety, and public and private schools.

Justice explained the fire insurance rates are based on the "law of averages" of all the companies for five years.

He said total premiums paid by schools, public buildings and churches for the past five years amounted to $3,803,844, with losses totaling only $914,170.

Supt. Hall said he expects the board will receive rebates on fire insurance for this year.

Next meeting is July 6.

Recount Ends With Graham Close Victor

The job of recounting Hancock County primary votes was wrapped up Tuesday afternoon at the Courthouse, confirming William C. Graham of Chester as the winner of the Democratic nomination for county commissioner over Alvin B. Clutter.

But the margin of victory was close.

When the recount of May 12 primary ballots started May 29, Graham showed 4,585 votes, 47 more than Clutter.

Nearly a month later, with the recount of ballots cast in all 38 precincts completed, Graham's total vote is still 4,585.

But Clutter picked up a total of 20 votes in the recount to lose the bid for nomination by only 27 votes, one of the closest races in years for a Courthouse post.

Clutter showed 4,538 votes before the canvass and ended with 4,558 to Graham's 4,585.

Recounting of Grant District ballots yesterday closed the recount. Graham led all through the recount, his margin fluctuating between 35 and 40 votes.

Winners of all close races but the one for county commissioner have been certified officially.

Palissey St.; Frank White, rear 457 1st Ave.; John Swager, 1165 Pennsylvania Ave.; Paul Gill, 1213 Pennsylvania Ave., and Lee Reynolds, 2030 Michigan Ave.

Six more tax cases were before Judge Samuel Chertoff this morning. Three were continued and a bench warrant was ordered for a fourth defendant who failed to appear. Another charge was dismissed and still another defendant was given a suspended fine.

Continuances until July 6 were allowed Ernest Bell, 517 Virginia Ave., and Herbert Dorsey, 946 Lisbon St. The case of Jack Menough, 801 W. 9th St., was continued until Friday.

The court ordered the bench warrant for William Adams, 507 Elm St., who did not appear as scheduled.

Both Dorsey and Bell were arraigned on charges they failed to file 1963 returns or 1964 estimates. The court then granted the continuances to allow them time to settle with the tax office.

The judge imposed a fine of $10 and costs on Everett Watson, 515 E. 6th St., accused of failure to file reports for the last two years, but suspended the fine on payment of costs. Advised a settlement had been made with the tax office in the case of Maude Atkins, 2899 Fair St., the court dismissed the charge.

project in 1958 during the administration of former Mayor Fred P. Lawrence.

HILL Associates will concentrate first on a land-use study that will assist it in making recommendations on the sites of a new senior high school and three elementary buildings which the Board of Education proposes to erect with a $3,334,000 bond issue.

The bond issue is slated to go on the ballot sometime in late fall — in advance of the November general election. Hill told the planning commission his firm could have suggestions prepared on school sites in advance of the election date if it launched its land-use study in early July.

Daniel Ziegler of the company's Pittsburgh office will be directly in charge of the planning work here.

Two Rights Workers Are Under Arrest

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — A spokesman for a civil rights organization said early today two civil rights volunteer workers had been arrested at Moss Point in southern Mississippi.

The spokesman, Bob Byers of the Council of Federated Organizations, said sheriff's deputies at Moss Point refused to give the charges over the telephone.

The Jackson County sheriff's office and city police at Moss Point and nearby Pascagoula said they had no knowledge of any arrests.

Byers said the pair, identified as Ronald Ridenour, 24, of Venice, Calif., and Howard Kirchenbaum, of Long Beach, L.I., N.Y., had been arrested by sheriff's deputies.

Byers, whose organization coordinates activities of all major civil rights groups in the state, said three attorneys were en route to Moss Point to represent the pair.

Ridenour and Kirchenbaum were among some 175 summer volunteers, mostly collegians, who arrived in the state over the weekend to work in civil rights projects.

Byers also said that a meeting hall for civil rights groups had been burned Tuesday night at Moss Point. A fire department dispatcher said the only reported blaze in that general vicinity was a small brush fire.

District Highway Work Discussed

A tentative five - year program for the State Highway Department's Division 11, including Columbiana County, was aired in a conference at Columbus Tuesday between Earl Nelson, division deputy director, and officials of the central office.

Nelson, of New Philadelphia, said there was a general discussion of projects in a five-year program, but no definite decisions were made. He said all the plans are subject to review by Director P. E. Masheter and the central office staff.

However, more definite details on a five-year program may be issued within two weeks, Nelson said. It will commence with the start of the new fiscal year July 1. Recent approval of a $500 million state bond issue for highway work probably will mean earlier completion of some projects, Nelson added.

This request was not granted by the union. They started a strike early in the morning of Tuesday June 16 at a time when there was a heavy load in our plant. For this we are very sorry.
Although we cannot deliver your bundles to you from our plant, we will keep our office open.

The Rev. H. Gene Toot, associate minister of the Trinity United Presbyterian Church, moderator, presided.

The event is scheduled Aug. 28-29 at Leesville Lake near Carrollton and members of men's organizations of the Presbytery are completing plans for the rally.

The Presbytery approved a plan of co-operative work of the Methodist and United Presbyterian Churches in the Irondale area to be served by one pastor. Additional plans, including the selection of a minister, will be announced later.

The group recognized the Rev. Boyd Yorke, emeritus pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Carrollton, who has served 50 years in the ministry.

Next meeting is Sept. 11-12 at the Beaver Creek United Presbyterian Camp at Grimms Bridge. The speaker will be the Rev. Edwin B. Fairman of Pittsburgh, East Central area secretary for the Commission on Ecumenical Missions and Relations.

Harry L. Dinsmore To Retire

East Liverpool will lose the services of an affable, conscientious public servant after Tuesday when Harry L. Dinsmore, manager of the Ohio State Employment Service office, retires.

Dinsmore has been manager of the local office since June 2, 1948, coming here from Salem where he had been stationed two years, and in the employment service for over 22 years.

THE veteran manager will be feted by the local office staff at a reception Friday from 7 to 10 p. m. at the Ohio Valley Gas Co.'s service center in Glenmoor.

Dinsmore, who observed his 70th birthday anniversary last November, had been looking forward to some traveling after his retirement but a heart ailment may curtail some of his plans. "I'll do whatever I can," he comments. Mr. and Mrs. Dinsmore reside in Canfield.

He has dealt in statistics most of his career, but the job is more than reports in figures.

In reply to a question about the chief duties of his position, Dinsmore was quick to reply, "The big job is to be of service to the community — to do a conscientious job for the applicants, the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation and the employers."

—:—

"THE community is the one that benefits most from this office — if it takes advantage of the opportunities offered," Dinsmore continued, citing the various facets of the office, including counseling, testing, interviewing, industrial services and services to veterans.

He's always needled by friends about finding them $1,000-a-month jobs but unfailingly replies with a smile, "You get the second one!"

Dinsmore joined the service in February 1942, a month after the federal government took over the employment service operations of the state for the remainder of World War II.

—:—

DURING World War II, he was interviewer, supervisor and assistant manager of the Youngstown office. When the War Manpower Commission was formed, Dinsmore became assistant area director, supervising employment offices in East Liverpool, Salem, Youngstown, Niles and Warren.

In 1946, he went to the Salem office as an interviewer and also served six months as acting manager of the Alliance office before coming to East Liverpool in 1948.

He commuted from Salem to East Liverpool for 18 months before purchasing a home on Orchard Grove Ave. which he still owns although he has been residing in Canfield and staying temporarily at the Travelers Hotel.

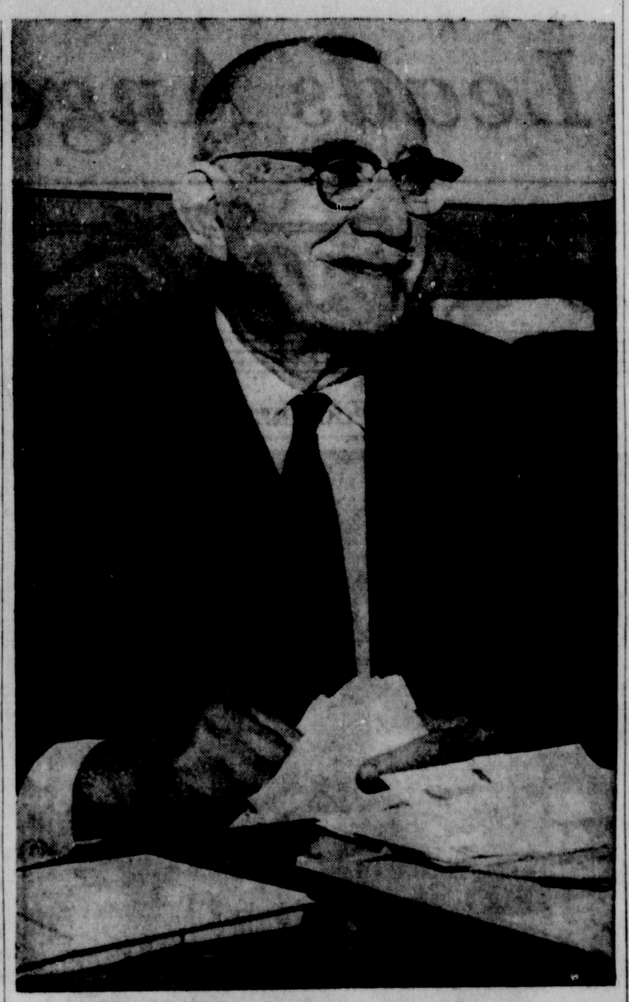
A NATIVE of Southwestern Pennsylvania, Dinsmore was superintendent of the Manown Manufacturing Co. in the small community near Monessen from 1914-21. It was a division of the Pittsburgh Coal Co., now the Consoliated Coal Co.



AWAITS STAFF RECEPTION. Harry L. Dinsmore, shown at his desk in the Ohio State Employment Service office here, will be honored by his co-workers at a reception Friday night upon his retirement from the state service. He has been manager of the city office since 1948 and has been in the service over 22 years.

He and his father later purchased a farm and coal mine near Salem which he operated for a time before going to Cleveland as a bookkeeper for a company which manufactured steel drums and containers.

Dinsmore was secretary-treasurer of the firm when it ceased operations in 1940. He returned to the farm until joining the employment service.

Disnmore has a son, daughter and five grandchildren but the family has an international background.

His son, Clarke, and his wife and two children reside in Bangkok, Thailand, where he is a sales engineer for Caltex, Ltd., an oil producer.

HIS son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Duncan Jr., have been residing in his Orchard Grove Ave. home since last November but moved this week to Cumberland, Md., where he will be an engineer for the Hercules Powder Co.

They returned last year after two years in Norway and Sweden where he was a consulting engineer for H. B. Maynard & Co., Inc., of Pittsburgh, a production management firm. Earlier, they spent two years in South America.

Scandinavian Name Has Political Magic

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — Nebraskans have long harbored a theory that there's political magic in a Scandinavian name.

In the recent Nebraska primary election, candidates named Swanson won the Democratic nomination for state auditor, the Republican nomination for state treasurer, the fifth district nomination for railway commissioner, and a Swenson won the second district Democratic nomination for Congress.

Of the 123 persons who have held major state offices since the turn of the century, 25 have had names ending in "son" or "sen."

An oft - heard explanation for the Scandinavian successes is noted by Arthur B. Winter, professor of political science at the University of Nebraska: the state's German citizens did not want to vote for a Catholic, and the Bohemians, who are mainly Catholic, did not want to vote for a German. "Therefore they both voted for the middleman—the Scandinavians."

Informal group discussions will be held by local officers and presidents will meet with Mrs. Claudius Ford, head of the County Council. Unit vice presidents will meet with George Vukas and Mrs. George Mrvos, council vice presidents. Secretaries will meet with Mrs. Ted Cwiczynski, first vice president of the council, and treasurers with Joseph Hill.

The session will close with a panel group answering questions of the local officers. Council officers and state chairmen will comprise the panel. Mrs. Greathouse will be moderator.

Culp In Near Perfect Game As Phils Split With Cubs

Converted Pitcher Leads Angels To 7th Straight

Frisco Divides 2 With Cincinnati

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Culp has pitched his way back into the Philadelphia Phillies' starting rotation. All it took was a near replica of teammate Jim Bunning's perfect game.

A first-inning base on balls and Len Gabrielson's sixth-inning single came between Culp and perfection, attained two days earlier by Bunning, as the 22-year-old right-hander blanked Chicago in the second game of a doubleheader Tuesday night.

No other Cub reached base against Culp, whose early season troubles cost him a front-line job on Gene Mauch's leaded pitching staff.

Mauch, thoroughly impressed after Culp's effort, announced that the National League-leading Phils will go with five starters henceforth.

"With Bunning, (Dennis) Bennett, (Art) Mahaffey and (Chris) Short working so well," the manager said, "we just haven't been able to give Ray enough work. The doubleheaders enabled us to use him more. Now he's pitching like he did last year."

Culp, a $100,000 bonus baby five years ago, won 14 games in 1963, his rookie season, and led Philadelphia pitchers with 176 strikeouts. He reported with a sore arm this spring, dropped five of six decisions and found himself in the bullpen.

But three victories—including the one-hitter—and two complete games in his last three appearances have vaulted the young Texan back into the Phils' pennant plan.

The second-game victory gave the Phils a split of the twi-nighter. Chicago took the opener 2-0 on Dick Ellsworth's five-hitter.

Second-place San Francisco divided with Cincinnati, winning 4-0 before bowing 5-4 in 11 innings. Pittsburgh defeated New York 5-1; Milwaukee beat Los Angeles 5-2 and St. Louis nipped Houston 5-4.

Culp said after the game he relied mainly on his fast ball against the Cub hitters.

"I had arm trouble late last year and early this season because I threw too much breaking stuff," he recalled.

He said Gabrielson's hit, a golfed shot off a low fast ball, surprised him. "I jammed him down and in, and he sliced it to right."

Culp wasn't ecstatic about his performance. "We're on top and I'm not a winning pitcher. If I was 10-5 with this club I'd have something to be happy about."

Phillie hitters were beaming after their 17-hit supporting role in the second-game victory. Wes Covington homered, Richie Allen cracked three doubles and John Hernnstein had four hits, including a pair of doubles.

The opener was another story. Ellsworth breezed to his ninth victory in 15 decisions. Ernie Banks singled home one run and rookie Billy Ott doubled in the other.

Marty Keough's lead-off homer in the 11th inning earned Cincinnati a split with San Francisco and kept the Giants 1½ games behind Philadelphia. Jim Hart's eighth inning homer, his second of the game, had pulled the Giants even.

Juan Marichal scattered seven singles in the opener and ran his record to 9-3. The Giants scored all their runs in the third inning, Duke Snider and Jose Pagan singling home two each.

Dick Schofield drove in four runs, three on a homer, and Vern Law pitched his fourth straight victory as the Pirates handed the Mets their 11th loss in 12 games.

Milwaukee snapped a seven-game losing string, rallying for three runs in the seventh on doubles by Hank Aaron and Felipe Alou and singles by Lee Maye and Joe Torre, to overtake the Dodgers. Frank Howard hit his 16th homer for Los Angeles and Ed Mathews his sixth for the Braves.

Rusty Staub's second error of the seventh inning allowed Tim McCarver to score St. Louis' winning run after John Bateman's homer had lifted the Colts into a 4-4 tie in the top of the inning.

Who Was National Leaguer That Wouldn't Vote Mays?

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Will the culprit—beg pardon, ball player—who did not vote for Willie Mays please stand up?

Or is he too busy cutting out paper dolls? Maybe he has suddenly gone blind. Or could it be he just can't spell M-A-Y-S.

How any major league ball player, sound of mind, devoid of prejudice, either over or under 21, could pick any center fielder in the United Statse—or in the world for that matter—over Mays is almost impossible to imagine.

Yet one did just that in the All-Star balloting conducted by Commissioner Ford Frick's office and announced Tuesday.

Actually, 30 players did not vote for Mays as the National League starting center fielder but 29 had a legitimate excuse. They were Willie's teammates and the rule says you cannot vote for a member of your team.

But what excuse did the other non-Mays voter have?

This guy voted for Curt Flood of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Now Flood is a capable center fielder but it's useless to even try to compare him with Mays. Or compare any other center fielder with Mays.

Willie is simply incomparable. He's a league all to himself. Whenever rival players or managers begin comparing stars, as they often do, they invariably place Mays in a category of his own. Then they begin evaluating the others.

Willie received 240 out of a possible 241 votes.

It would serve this lonesome guy right if the other 240 voted to have him appear at home plate before the All-Star game, July 7, and say out loud, a thousand times:

"Willie Mays. Willie Mays. Willie Mays."

Orioles Edge Yanks, 9-8

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

When Hollywood made the movie, "Angels in the Outfield," they weren't talking about Willie Smith. All of the Angels, however, are talking about him now.

The movie was a story of the heavenly kind of angels in the outfield of the Pittsburgh Pirates. But Smith, a Los Angeles Angel, has been a devil at bat.

The pitcher turned outfielder lashed two singles and a two-run homer Tuesday night, sparking Los Angeles to a 2-0 triumph over Washington. The victory was the seventh straight for the Angels, equaling the longest winning streak in the majors this season.

It also marked the second consecutive night Smith won games with his bat. His pinch-hit single the night before drove in the tie-breaking run in a 5-2 victory over the Senators.

The 25-year-old lefty was a pitcher until Manager Bill Rigney decided Smith deserved a trial as a hitter. Rigney now believes there's never been anyone more deserving.

Smith reached the majors last year with Detroit. He pitched in 11 games, gaining a 1-0 record and a 4.50 earned run average. The Angels acquired him April 29 in a trade for Julio Navarro.

As a southpaw hurler this season, Smith has a poor 1-4 record in 14 relief appearances and one start but has a respectable 2.81 ERA.

When Smith was inserted into the line-up for his hitting, Rigney didn't fool around. The manager placed him in right field and made him the No. 4 hitter. Smith's performance Tuesday night rocketed his average 40 points to .319. He has two home runs and 10 runs batted in for 47 times at bat.

His pinch-hitting record is even more amazing. He has seven hits in 14 chances, with five of the hits coming in his last seven tries.

That's pretty heavenly in Rigney's book.

Elsewhere in the AL Tuesday night, Baltimore nipped New York 9-8, Chicago blanked Boston 2-0, Minnesota whipped Cleveland 6-2 and Detroit trampled Kansas City 9-3 after losing 2-1.

Smith's homer in the eighth inning broke up a scoreless pitching duel between the Angels' Dean Chance and Bennie Daniels. Chance wound up tossing a four-hitter for his fifth victory against three defeats. The shutout reduced his ERA to 1.91.

The Yankees appeared well on their way to an easy victory when the Orioles struck for seven runs after two were out in he eighth. Pinch hitter Charley Lau ignited the comeback with a single and climaxed it with a run-scoring double.

Brooks Robinson and Willie Kirkland each singled home two runs in the inning. When it was all over, Baltimore was in first place one-half game ahead of New York. Elston Howard, Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris homered for the losers.

Fred Talbot scattered eight hits for the White Sox. Pete Ward homered, and J. C. Martin knocked in Chicago's second run with a double in the sixth inning.

Harmon Killebrew smashed his 23rd homer in the Twins' triumph. Jim Kaat hurled a five-hitter, losing a shutout in the ninth on Bob Chance's two-run single. Kaat singled home one of Minnesota's three runs in the second.

The Tigers salvaged a split of their doubleheader with the Athletics behind the hitting of Dick McAuliffe and Al Kaline. McAuliffe connected for a grand-slam homer in the eighth while Kaline batted in three runs, two with a single in the second.

Rocky Colavito's two-run single in the fifth inning won the first game for Kansas City. His hit was only the second off Joe Sparma, who was making his first major league appearance.

Talbott Bats, Pitches Team To 10-0 Win

Gail Talbott uncorked a neat three hit shutout in pitching the Chester Merchants to a 10-0 win over Local 647 Tuesday in the Chester Softball League.

Talbott led the Merchants at the plate as well as on the mound by smacking a double and two singles.

Hulme and Robinson added two hits each to the attack and D. Davis tripled. Taylor was the losing pitcher.

Yesterday's Stars

PITCHING—Ray Culp, Philadelphia, pitched a one-hitter and allowed only two base runners as the Phillies clobbered the Chicago Cubs 9-0 in the second game of a twi-night doubleheader.

BATTING—Willie Smith, Los Angeles, a pitcher converted into an outfielder, hit a two-run homer and added two singles in the Angels' seventh straight victory 2-0 over Washington.

Golfer Tommy Armour, a native of Edinburg, Scotland, served as a major in the British Tank Corps during World War I.

Clay's Problem: What To Do With 3,500-Lb. Slab

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay returned home Tuesday night from a five-week African tour with a weighty problem—what to do with a 3,500-pound stone slab, once part of an Egyptian pyramid.

He received the stone as a gift from the Egyptian government.

Clay said that the stone had been part of the Giza pyramid and that this was the first time that the Egyptian government ever had presented a portion of such a structure to an individual.

Clay said the slab is being brought here by ship and is expected to arrive next month.

When asked what he was going to do with it, he looked puzzled and replied, "Well, I might look at it for awhile and then give it to a museum or I might make a couch out of it and put it in the living room of my pretty home."

On being asked if he was glad to be home, Clay said, "Oh man, yeah."

Realtor Nine Clinches Tie For 1st Half Title

The Realtors, by virtue of a 4-2 victory over the Dentists, clinched at least a tie for the first half title in the Colt League Tuesday.

The Realtors went on top 2-0 in the first inning but the Dentists came up with a run in the second frame. The winners finally scored two more markers in the fifth to insure the victory.

Jack Myler, who was relieved by Quetot in the sixth, bested the efforts of Len Walker who gave up six hits and fanned nine batters. Myler struck out five and Quetot had four in his brief stint.

Landis and Crable led the winners with two hits each and Comparetta and Walker had a pair of safeties for the Dentists.

Four fine defensive plays were turned in by Bill Smith and Rick Cunningham of the Dentists and Joe Massey and Rick Landis of the Realtors.

Britain Out To Return Pro Stars To Wimbledon

By JOHN GALE
Associated Press Writer

WIMBLEDON, England (AP)—Britain will make a determined move next month to bring the great names of professional tennis back to Wimbledon's green and rain-washed turf.

As the organizers of the 78th All-England championships surveyed the ruins of Tuesday's rain-wrecked session, they enthused over their recall-the-stars scheme which will be presented July 8 to the International Lawn Tennis Federation meeting in Vienna.

If approved, it could mean the return to major tournaments of such past masters as Lew Hoad, Ken Rosewall, Tony Trabert and Alex Olmedo. All are now in the ranks of the paid players.

Said Basil Reay, secretary of the British Lawn Tennis Association:

"We will make a hard effort to get the British plan through. It will be a terrific disappointment for Britain if we can't get an open Wimbledon next year though I hasten to add it is not the end of the world."

The British plan proposes that tennis countries should be given sanction to stage experimental open tournaments during 1965-66. Alternatively, it says that whatever other countries do, Wimbledon should be allowed to go it alone with the experiment during the two-year preiod.

The British plan needs two-thirds of the Vienna vote for approval. It seems unlikely to be forthcoming.

The Australian Association already has said it will vote against the British proposals. The United States is expected to do likewise.

Tuesday's watery Wimbledon lasted just long enough to demonstrate again the rising standard of Soviet tennis.

Anna Dmitrieva, 23-year-old Russian girl, took the first set 6-4 in her first-round match against Karen Hantze Susman of San Antonio, Tex., winner of the 1962 Wimbledon title. The match was called off with the Russian leading 2-1 in the second set after the slippery court surface had spilled Mrs. Susman five times.

Only a dozen contests were completed—less than one sixth of the program. But there was time enough for the two top seeds, Margaret Smith and Maria Bueno, to romp through their opening assignments.

Miss Smith, from Australia, crushed Annette Van Zyl of South Africa 6-2, 6-1. Brazil's Miss Bueno produced the full flow of her royal strokes to sweep by Carol Prosen of Orlando, Fla., 6-0, 6-3.

Nicklaus In Tune Up For Cleveland Event

Associated Press Sports Writer

CLEVELAND (AP)—The big money golf tourists are beginning to bunch up, but youthful Jack Nicklaus is taking steps to stay on top.

The 24 - year - old Columbus star, who paces the pack with $51,426 despite picking up only $400 in last week's National Open, has an eye on the $20,000 top prize in the $110,000 Cleveland Open, which starts its four-day, 72-hole medal-play grind Thursday.

While runner-up Arnold Palmer ($49,651) and fourth - place Tony Lema ($40,561) passed up practice rounds Tuesday over the 6,821-yard, par-71 Highland Park course—the last free round ride around the rugged municipal layout—Nicklaus measured every inch of it.

Instead of cooking up a "skin game" with some of the other competitors, Nicklaus went out alone with only his caddy tagging along. He kept no score, but he had a score card full of notes when he came in.

Also missing the practice jaunt were Ken Venturi, last week's surprise winner of the National Open, and classy Dow Finsterwald. The temperature was in the 90s, and tornado warnings were flying to discourage much of the talented field of 149 professionals and 10 amateurs.

Fifty of the pros had a picnic today as each teamed with three amateurs in a best-ball handicap round with $10,000 going to the play-for-pay group. The professionals paid no entry fee, but each of the 150 amateurs tossed $200 into the pot.

The $200 gave each amateur, in addition to the 18-hole jaunt with a top-ranked pro, six tickets and a parking sticker for the remainder of the tournament.

The professional shooting today's best round was due for a $1,000 prize and the pro in the leading foursome had an $800 payoff on tap. So one of them could possibly pick up $1,800.

Santa Claus 4-5 Pick In Sweepstakes

LONDON (AP) — British bookmakers have established Santa Claus as a 4-5 favorite for Saturday's Irish Sweepstakes Derby while challengers to the speedy colt continue to dwindle.

Two American colts were among several withdrawn Tuesday for the 1½-mile event at the Curragh race track, first test for Santa Claus since his victory in the Epsom Derby. It appeared the starting field would number only about 15 horses.

Baldric II and Transpose, owned by Mrs. Howell E. Jackson of the Bull Run Stud in Virginia, were the American entries pulled out. Baldric's poor showing in the Epsom Derby, also at 1½ miles, after a victory in the English 2,000 Guineas Handicap, prompted his withdrawal. Transpose had not been regarded as a likely starter.

Dilettante II, owned by Larry Gelb of New York, was quoted at 8-1 by British bookmakers.

Christian's One-Hit Job Features LL

Behind the one-hit pitching of Jerry Christian, McBurney's piled up a 10-2 victory over the Chester Legion while Burbick's topped the Medic's, 5-2 and Golden Star routed Travelers, 11-2.

Marshall came up with the only hit off Christian to drive in Chester's two runs. Christian showed eight strikeouts but gave up seven walks. Jerry Badgley was the loser and fanned nine. Rick Shuck with two doubles and a single and Bob Cooper's three singles paced McBurney's.

Burbick's broke a 2-2 tie with three big runs in the fifth inning as Staley hurled a two hitter for the winners. Mick Lowry and Diddle with two hits each led Burbick's while Talbot, a nine-year-old, bunted in the leading run in the fifth inning. Parsons had both hits for the Medics.

Golden Star belted 15 hits and scored eight runs in the final two innings to trip Travelers Hotel.

Kevin Mack, Jim Massey, Dean Horger, Dave Kyle and Jigs Carter all had two hits each for the winners. Don Smith belted a home run to pace the Hotel nine. Mike Lockhart was the winning pitcher allowing four hits while Rick Lockhart was charged with the loss.

Fighter Wouldn't Cross Fingers, May Break One

By JACK HEWINS
Associated Press Sports Writer

SEATTLE (AP) — Eddie Cotton said today he isn't crossing his fingers. He might break one.

Freshly turned 38 and looking much too healthy for his own good, ol' Breaks 'n' Aches Eddie is winding up training this week at his home base for a July 3 bout in New York with Wayne Thornton.

The winner expects to earn a crack at Willie Pastrano's light-heavyweight title in September —and that's the break Eddie has been hoping for.

If the Cottons keep a family album it's probably full of X-ray pictures. Lanky Ed has been knocked out only once in a ring career dating back to 1947, but he's been on the medical shelf so often the doctors think his name is Eddie Fracture.

The tally—not counting mere sprains—is four broken hands, two to a side; one fractured pelvis; one bout with pneumonia which he won by a narrow decision.

Cotton started getting the breaks literally when he cracked his left mitt on the jaw of Dave Whitlock in California in 1956. He signed up the same year to box Archie Moore but broke the same hand again in training.

The jinx abandoned Ed for six years while he interspersed fisticuffs with his job as a toolmaker at the Boeing airplane plant here. A day or two before he was to fly to Peru and box Mauro Mina in January 1962, a 75-pound chunk of aluminum popped out of a shaping press and tagged Eddie in passing.

It broke his pelvis, sprained his right hand badly and left him in the hospital on fight night. The bout was put off to October and Cotton lost a split decision to Mina but got a rematch for January of unlucky 1963.

He lost again while breaking his right hand on the Mina topography. In May he tested the hand on Henry Peterson and won by a knockout, but he broke it again in June in the process of defeating Chick Calderwood at Glasgow, Scotland. By October he was back in the ring, whipping Hank.

Since then Cotton has broken nothing except the heart of his manager, George Chemeres. This he accomplished by catching pneumonia, on the eve of a televised fight at Chicago in March. The Thornton scrap will be his first since recovery.

50-Lap Duel Set Tonight At Canfield

The biggest event of the season is in store for amateur stock car racers at Canfield Speedway tonight. They will compete in a 50-lap midseason championship duel.

It will be an all-amateur program with eight events — all over the quarter-mile track.

The regular program of amateurs and late models will be held Saturday night when some 125 cars will be in the pits for a 12-race card.

The big test tonight will be the ability of the amateur cars to travel the 50 laps, the longest they have ever tried at Canfield.

If one were to pick a favorite they would have to choose one of the feature winners that have grabbed the checkered flag this season.

George Playforth's victory last Saturday night made him the only amateur to cop two features this year.

Also rated high on the list will be previous winners Paul Finch of Canfield, Vince Carbone of Warren, Lou Parker of Struthers, Jim Gillespie of Warren, Terry Smith of Boardman, Bill Collier of Woodworth, Paul Miller of Struthers, Gary Walters of Niles and Gus DeLong of Struthers.

Walters is on top of the heap in the standings, proving the most consistant driver among the amateurs.

Also rated high will be Bud Comm of Boardman and Gary Cross of Niles. Both rate high in the standings and have ran second to feature winners twice this season.

Time trials both tonight and Saturday nights begin at 6:30 p. m. with first events at 8.

It Wasn't His Son: Loss To Loss Is $100

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif. (AP)—Richard Loss received a telegram from Seattle, Wash., asking for $100. It was signed by his son, Richard Loss Jr.

Loss wired the money. Then he realized something was wrong. His son lives in Princeton, N.J.

Loss checked with Loss Jr. and found he hadn't been to Seattle.

Loss lost no time in contacting authorities. It was a phony wire, they said. The $100? A total loss to Loss.

Former PGA champion Lionel Herbert is the younger brother of Jay Hebert, also a former PGA winner.

Burbick's And Bright's Win Pony Decisions

Burbick's turned back Litten's, 10-3 and George Bright's outslugged Woodbine for an 8-4 victory on the Pony League scene Tuesday.

The first half championship in the League was determined Monday when Litten's defeated Sevy's. Ray Flint, manager of the Litten nine, now becomes manager of the Pony League All-Star who will go into tourney action following the regular season.

Burbick's after falling behind 2-1 in the first inning came-back to score nine runs in three frames to put the contest out of reach.

Kidder, the winning pitcher, gave Litten's four hits while his teammates collected seven off Litten's pitching.

Musuraca's double and single led Burbick's while Myers pounded a home run and single for Litten's.

The Bright's - Woodbine battle was called in the seventh with Woodbine rallying.

Rex Campbell, the winning pitcher, also helped his own cause with a home run. Stepien hit one for George Bright's while Six belted a pair of doubles. Campbell, who was relieved in the sixth inning, fanned nine batters. Bernard Lovejoy was the loser.

OSU Freshman Holds 1-Stroke Lead In Juniors

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—Volker Krajewski, an Ohio State University freshman from Dayton, carried a one-stroke lead into today's final round of the Ohio Junior Golf Tournament at Brookside Country Club.

Krajewski, a blond 19-year-old who came to this country from Germany in 1955, fired a par 35-37—72 Tuesday. Tied in the runnerup spot, one stroke back were John Cowan of Urbana, who won the junior title last year, and Artie Ware, Miami University freshman from Lebanon.

Warren's Bob Lewis was two strokes off the pace with 74.

Krajewski was runnerup last year to state scholastic champion Alex Antonio Jr. of Youngstown and was a member of Dayton Kettering High's state scholastic championship teams in 1961 and 1963.

Jacksonville Wins, Holds Slim IL Lead

By The Associated Press

One just needs quick look at the International League standings to see that any one of five teams could win the pennant and no one would be surprised.

League - leading Jacksonville maintained a slim 1½ - game lead Tuesday night by splitting a doubleheader with Syracuse, losing the frist game 3-2 and winning the second 8-1.

In the only other game Rochester beat Atlanta 4-3 in a contest called at the end of 6½ innings because of rain. Columbus and Buffalo and Richmond and Toronto were rained out.

Even though idle, Toronto moved into second place. Rochester, Syracuse and Buffalo, who fill out the top five in that order, are each just 2½ games behind the pace-setting Suns.

Auditoriums To Be Utilized

Unable to justify little-used auditoriums in buildings converted from senior high schools to junior highs, the Hancock County Board of Education announced Tuesday night a broad program of renovation.

Supt. Robert H. Hall said the auditoriums, with sloping floors and seats, will be converted to multi - purpose rooms like the one at the Oak Glen building, and may also be used for cafeterias.

"It may seem a bold stroke, but we cannot justify all the expensive, unused square feet of space in the junior high buildings," Supt. Hall commented.

When the auditoriums are renovated to make the sloping floors level, and the seats are removed, there will still be space to watch basketball games from chairs, he said.

Work on the program of renovation will begin this summer at the New Cumberland Junior High building, and will eventually reach the other buildings in Chester and Newell.

Court Launches Trial On Larceny By Trick

LISBON — William Buckholtz of Windham went on trial today before Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp, accused of larceny by trick in allegedly obtaining two truck tires in March at the Interstate Truck Stop near Columbiana, operated by William G. Jackson.

Indicted by the recalled April Grand Jury June 5, the defendant pleaded not guilty June 17.

The jury is composed of: Jack Tinsley, Ivah Krofft and Donna Ehrhart, Salem; Mary Ann Ferrello and Evelyn Harley, East Liverpool; Donald McClincock and Charles J. Yoos, Lisbon; Elizabeth Reesh, East Palestine; Arthur Edling, Columbiana; Harriett Bowman, Hanoverton; Myrtle Walters, Rogers, and Glenn Smith, Alliance R. D. 5. Harry Myers of Wellsville is alternate.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

Dear Heloise: I would like to pass along a hint to campers or hunters who make their temporary homes in tents.

Dampness is always a problem — but we have solved a portion of it.

We sleep on the floor of our tent (without cots). In the morning, when airing out blankets and sleeping bags, even with a good layer of newspaper for insulation, the floor of the tent would show a great amount of moisture.

The solution, therefore is ... before pitching a tent, lay a plastic drop cloth on the area which has been cleared. These drop cloths can be bought at paint stores for about a dollar and they are usually 9x12 size. Be sure to cover all of the floor area of your tent.

Then place the tent over this plastic. In the morning you will have no wet floors!

We used this method for a week while camping in a damp area.

Now if someone could just find out how to keep the dampness out of the clothes we put on in the morning, we would appreciate it.

MRS. J. KROLL.

-:-

Anybody know? If so, do write to Heloise in care of this paper. Letters do not have to be signed.

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: After I wash my hand-knit bedspread or crocheted table cloth, I use my curtain stretcher to dry them. They always come out perfectly square.

Fold the cloth in half. Then put it (folded double) on the stretcher. Take any starch (homemade or purchased), put it into a finger - type squirt bottle and spray away.

After drying, the folded side which has been attached to the nails may be laid flat and restretched (leaving the pricked part in the middle of the curtain stretcher) and spray starched again. This will eliminate all the folds.

If you don't want the trouble of restretching, dampen a wash cloth and press the center fold on the ironing board.

At any rate, the cloth always comes out a perfect square.

HELEN WHITE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: If you have an extra bowl brush holder in the bathroom — instead of letting it sit idle, store extra rolls of toilet tissue in it. Mine holds four rolls nicely. The tissue is handy — and best of all, it gives more space in the linen closet.

MRS. R. W. SPRUCE.

DEAR HELOISE: When I was 8 years old, I showed my mother a trick for making a meat sandwich.

She thought I was crazy for salt and peppering the bread instead of the meat until I explained to her that the salt and pepper didn't bounce off when I shook it on the buttered bread, and that it was distributed more evenly over the sandwich.

BILLY DEAN.

DEAR HELOISE: Take a fruit jar and fill it with flour, salt and pepper to taste and mix it well. Punch some holes in the lid with an ice pick and it's the most wonderful flour shaker in town.

By using this to shake over the grease when making gravy, I never have lumps. It is also wonderful to flour meats with, and easy to refill.

MRS. F.

DEAR HELOISE: We use a lot of lemon juice, so I squeeze lemons and fill my freezer trays. When the juice is frozen, I release the cubes and transfer them to a plastic bag and leave them in the freezer.

If the children want lemonade during the summer we add a cube to a glass of water, sugar, etc., and it's ready in a jiffy.

A cube of this juice is nice to put in a glass of coke, too.

MRS. M. SCHNALLI.

First Negro In 100 Years Gains Council

PETERSBURG, Va. (AP) — Petersburg voters have elected a Negro, John H. Owens, to the City Council for the first time in nearly 100 years.

Owens received 1,724 votes Tuesday for one of the three seats open on the council in a runoff election.

Others elected were Lester I. Bowman, with 2,179, and Vice Mayor Arlie G. Andrews, with 1,933.

Dog Will Spend Summer Between Home And Farm

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)— Rorscharch, an 8-year-old Dalmatian, will spend the summer alternating between a sumptuous home with a splendid picture window and a leading thoroughbred farm.

His master and mistress, Thomas E. and Bessie Hager Masters, are being divorced and each wants sole possession of the animal.

Masters says he has a concrete block doghouse with a picture window for Rorscharch at his home at nearby Nicholasville. Mrs. Masters says she would keep the dog at Maine Chance Farm near Lexington.

Circuit Judge Nolan Carter ruled Tuesday they would alternate posession monthly, with visitation privileges, until the divorce is final.

After that, the judge said, he would have to figure out who gets the dog—"or eventually just have to cut it in half."

Ex-Senator Dies

TYLER, Tex. (AP)—Earle B. Mayfield, who served as U.S. senator from Texas from 1922 to 1928, died Tuesday after a sudden illness. Mayfield, a Democrat, was succeeded by the late Tom Connally.

Rotary Hears Blair

Need Of School Expansion Cited

Describing an interest - free loan of nearly $1 million from the state as a "God-send" to East Liverpool, School Supt. Paul H. Blair spelled out the urgency of a proposed $3.3 million bond issue for school expansion in addressing the Rotary Club at Tuesday's noon luncheon meeting in the Travelers Hotel.

Blair emphasized the city can no longer fold its hands and wait for construction of modern new school buildings.

HE explained the state grant of $990,958 is the fourth largest among the 14 school districts that received building aid out of 54 which applied for assistance from proceeds of the $250 million bond issue passed by Ohio residents.

But the loan is contingent upon the Board of Education furnishing the $3,334,000 in local funds through passage of a bond issue for construction of a new high school and three elementary buildings.

"We cannot wait for our place in line to be held for us," Blair said in explaining the board must act on furnishing the $3.3 million in local revenue for schools within 120 days of June 10.

HE disclosed that Sept. 15 has been set tentatively as date for a special election on the bond issue. The board earlier entered into a tentative agreement with Robert F. Beatty, city architect, to design the schools subject to passage of the bond issue and approval of Beatty by State Supt. E. E. Holt.

Blair pointed out that the need for a modern new senior high school has been underscored in surveys of the school system as far back as 1935, when the project would have cost only $350,000. Although subsequent surveys also cited the need for a new high school, very little work was done on furnishing the new facility, Blair said.

"We have reached the point where we must do something for our schools," Supt. Blair declared. He described the cost of operating Central School (built in 1894) and said Central has outlived its usefulness by 50 years.

THE past year, Blair said, a total of 468,500 pounds of coal were required to heat Central, costing the board $2,044.50. Expense of operating the building also includes water, electric and maintenance, and salaries for teachers.

"We paid 16 teachers with master's degrees $97,155 this year to educate boys and girls in a building that has outlived its usefulness 50 years," Blair said of Central.

Pointing out its laboratory facilities are inadequate, Supt. Blair told of observing students in a biology class at Central dissecting frongs on their desk tops. East Liverpool is one of the few high schools in Ohio offering an advanced program in biology under such adverse conditions, he said.

IF THE city uses the money made available in the "package deal," and passes the bond issue, a new elementary school in East End, another on the North Side, and another to serve the Northwest side of the city and the new high school would be constructed, Blair said.

Outlining the approximate cost to the taxpayers, Blair said the cost of the bond issue would be only 4 to 4½ cents a day for one whose home is on the tax duplicate for $8,000; 5 to 5½ cents for a $10,000 home, and 7 cents a day for a $12,000 home.

"Can we afford this when the future of our youth is at stake? he asked.

Supt. Blair, who has been in the system here 10 years, also discussed possible uses of buildings that would be abandoned when replaced with new structures.

—:—

"THE HIGH school could become a trades building; the site of Central could be used for a business as the structure is unsafe for present use; Memorial Auditorium could become a civic center or youth center, as we do not have a youth center," he said. The board could also consider the property for a parking lot, he said.

He listed the fate of schools abandoned earlier. "The 6th St. school became the site for a nursing home; a motel is under construction on the site of West End School; Washington School became an apartment building, Grant St. School a church, 3rd St. School a parking lot, and Walker School a structure for the Grange," Blair continued.

"We want to provide a top-quality educational program denoting excellence for our youngsters, and the power to bring them back," Blair said. He added, "Good schools are the key point in getting new industry into a city."

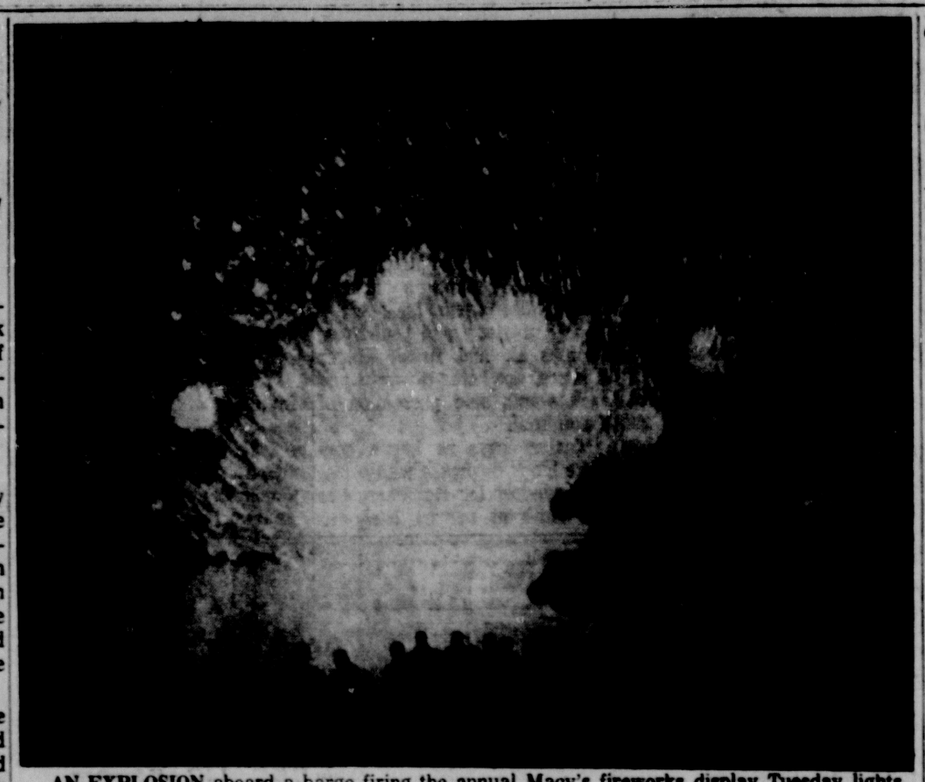
THE superintendent stressed the need for vocational-technical schools for dropouts. "We must go beyond the present college preparatory program, and plan for vocational-technical schools to fit the dropouts into a career so they will remain here," Blair declared.

Supt. Blair was introduced by C. V. Hughes, retired business manager of The Review, who taught eight months of the last term at the high school. He was program chairman.

"I found the system good, although needing a lot of things which you don't have to be a teacher to recognize," Hughes said. "The junior high program is excellent but the pupils graduate to a 'Model-T' high school which must be replaced," he said.

Guests included Bob McNea, newly-hired Potter football coach, who was given a standing ovation by the club upon introduction by Principal Carl Pelini. Ralph A. Finley, president, presided.



AN EXPLOSION aboard a barge firing the annual Macy's fireworks display Tuesday lights up the sky as thousands of spectators view the Hudson River pageant. The spellbound crowd gasped as the pyrotechnical spectacle, unaware that the brightest flash was not in the script and had cost two men their lives. Macy's Spectacle On Hudson

2 Killed As Fireworks On River Barge Explode

NEW YORK (AP) — A fireworks-laden barge exploded in a fury of rockets, flares and bombs on the Hudson River Tuesday night, killing two men. Thousands of spectators cheered. They thought it was part of the show.

Half a million persons lined the riverbanks in Manhattan and New Jersey for the fireworks spectacle, produced since 1957 bp Macy's department store.

Two other barges, whose crews apparently were unaware of the fatal accident, continued firing rockets into the sky.

At the finale, 20 minutes later, spectators some distance from the blast, off 96th Street, still were cheering. A hush fell on thousands of others as news of the blast spread.

John Serpico, president of International Fireworks Co. of North Bergen, N.J., said "a low burst that apparently ignited shells on the deck of the barge" caused the explosion.

Killed were Anthony Amato, 60, of Secaucus, N.J., and Anthony De Francisco, 40, of Sparkill, N.Y.

Four other men on the barge were rescued by the tug which was towing it. One was treated at a hospital for burns and released.

Less than an hour earlier, an explosion destroyed an ammunition room in the sub-basement of a Manhattan armory where about 385 National Guard reservists were attending a weekly drill.

Nineteen were injured. All but four were released after hospital treatment. Two of the four were in serious condition.

Cause of the blast, which knocked out heavy concrete walls and blew off the steel doors to the room, has not been determined.

City Youth Requests Burglary Probation

A probation investigation has been ordered by Judge Joel H. Sharp for David Lee Stoakes, 19, of 1070 St. George St., who changed his plea to guilty Tuesday to a charge of burglarizing the Adkins Lumber & Supply Co., 1802 Harvey Ave.

Stoakes was indicted for burglary Dec. 3, 1963, of the East End lumber company, where he obtained a small amount of money.

Despite Disappearance Of Three

Civil Rights Workers Will Continue Training

OXFORD, Ohio (AP)—Several hundred volunteer civil rights workers training to go to Mississippi this summer still intend to proceed with their plans despite the disappearance of three of their colleagues in that southern state, a spokesman says.

Observers on the campus of the Western College for Women said the second class of volunteers for the Mississippi summer project appeared shaken but undaunted by the news that Anyd Goodman, 20, of New York City, a member of the first class and two fellow civil rights workers have disappeared in central Mississippi.

"As far as we know, no one withdrew from the project after hearing the news," said a spokesman for the National Council of Churches, which operates the training courses together with the Council of Federated Organizations.

The spokesman said a total of 388 persons, including staff members, are taking part in the second phase of the program.

"This tragedy has had no effect at all on the project," the spokesman said. "The curriculum will continue as planned."

He said the students were told repeatedly to consider whether they still wanted to go through with the project.

An intensive hunt is on in Mississippi for the three volunteer workers. Their burned out car was found by searchers yesterday, but no trace of the trio has been found.

Goodman was one of 175 "graduates" of the first class of the Mississippi Summer Project who went to Philadelphia, Miss., last weekend to take part in the council of churches' Negro voter registration and education projects. The other two missing men, Mickey Schwerner, 24, of New York City and James Cheney, 22, a Meridian, Miss. Negro, are field workers for the Congress of Racial Equality.

The second class' curriculum includes discussion of nonviolent resistance methods and practical advice on setting up community centers and reading courses.

Bayard Rustin, organizer of last summer's march on Washington, was to speak to the volunteers today.

'We Almost Lost Him,' Aide Says Of Sen. Kennedy

NORTHAMPTON, Mass. (AP) —An aide to Sen. Edward M. Kennedy said Tuesday night that Kennedy had no pulse and his blood pressure "was almost nonexistent" when he was brought into Cooley Dickinson Hospital early Saturday after a plane crash.

"We almost lost him," press secretary Edward Martin said.

Martin credited Dr. Thomas F. Corriden with saving the life of Kennedy, 32-year-old Massachusetts Democrat and brother of the late President John F. Kennedy.

Sen. Kennedy's administrative aide, Edward S. Moss, and the pilot, Edwin T. Zimny, were killed in the crash. Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., and the latter's wife, Marvella, were injured.

Kennedy is immobilized in an orthopedic bed to permit his injured back to heal. His press secretary said he will be kept in this apparatus until about July 6.

30-Day Sentence Given Soldier In Resisting Arrest

Kenneth T. Dean of Salineville, identified as a soldier AWOL from a North Carolina post, was given a 30-day County Jail term today in Municipal Court when he pleaded guilty before Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of resisting arrest and obstructing officers in their lawful duties.

Dean allegedly struggled with officers early Saturday morning when they served him with a warrant on a bad check charge at a home on Monroe St. Lt. William E. McDaniel was injured when shoved into a window of the home.

The check charge against Dean was dismissed Tuesday at the request of Larry Finlay, a St. Clair Ave. market operator who was the complaining witness.

Police said another affidavit is on file against Dean in East Palestine, also on a bad check charge. He also is subject to return to military authorities.

Queried by the judge today, Dean admitted he has been AWOL "about three weeks" from the 82nd Military Police Detachment at Ft. Bragg, N. C.

Boy Drowns In Pool

MASSILLON, Ohio (AP) — Three lifeguards were on duty, police reported, when 7-year-old Rudolph Mathes waded into water too deep for him and drowned at Fountainblue Pool here. The boy's brother, Jeffrey, 13, and his mother, Mrs Rudolph Mathes, also were at the pool Tuesday. Jeffrey said he had warned Rudolph against wading into too deep water, but the youngster apparently ignored the warning.

Only California Following Lead

New Hampshire Lottery Gets Ho-Hum Elsewhere

CHICAGO (AP) — The state lottery, which is producing big response and bigger income for New Hampshire, generally has drawn a legislative ho - hum elsewhere in the nation.

Only California is taking steps to follow New Hampshire's lead.

The first drawing for the 1964 Granite State Sweepstakes in New Hampshire will be next month. Buyers' names will be drawn from a drum containing $1 million worth of tickets. Those drawn will be assigned to the 332 horses nominated for the Sept. 12 sweepstakes race at Rockingham Park race track. Subsequent drawings will be held for each additional $1 million in tickets sold.

Backers say the New Hampshire plan will swell state coffers and mollify taxpayers. "A man would rather lay a bet than pay a tax," the logic goes.

Thus far only Californians have seen the logic. In November, they'll vote on a referendum to establish a state-franchised, privately operated lottery. The initiative would write a 10-year monopoly on the lottery into the state constitution in behalf of American Sweepstakes Corp. The firm would sell $2 tickets, keeping 26 cents and turning in $1.74 to the state for prizes, operating expenses and public school support.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown's Democratic administration opposes the measure, as do most church groups and both houses of the legislature. To defeat the scheme, California lawmakers placed their own measure on the ballot. If successful, it would make it illegal to write constitutional amendments naming any firm—profit making or not—to perform a state job.

Butler County Traffic Toll Stands At 19

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Butler County's 1964 traffic death toll stood at 19 today—two more than a year ago—with the death of a Queen Acres Subdivision boy whose bicycle was hit by a truck.

Sheriff's deputies said Gary Fowler, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Fowler, was killed Tuesday night in the accident on Ohio 129 five miles west of here. Gary and another boy had almost reached home with parts for a soapbox derby racer when the accident happened, deputies said.

Youth Uses Sawed-Off Shotgun To Rob Bank

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — A young man used a sawed - off shotgun to rob the West Toledo Branch of the Lucas County State Bank of approximately $3,000. The man, between 20 and 22 years old, pulled the shotgun from a paper bag Tuesday and demanded money from teller Mrs. Mary Mithen.

Manager Thomas Eley, the only other person in the bank, said the robber was in the bank only about three minutes and fled on foot after warning against sounding an alarm.

Rep. Passman's Boast On Aid Cut Backfires

Today In Washington
By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the news from Washington:

—:—

WASHINGTON (AP)—It has been Rep. Otto E. Passman's boast that his appropriations subcommittee has slashed more than $8 billion from foreign aid in the nine years he has been chairman.

Tuesday, the Louisiana Democrat was beaten in his own subcommittee. It refused to go along with Passman's demand for a 514 million cut in the $3.5-billion foreign aid bill.

Passman stalked out of the closed meeting, telling reporters he would temporarily step down as chairman so he could oppose the bill on the floor.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House climaxed a long fight with Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara Tuesday. It passed a bill to expand the Reserve officer training program in high schools and colleges.

It was a personal victory for Rep. F. Edward Hebert, D-La., who introduced the measure after becoming irked by McNamara's proposal last year to eliminate high school ROTC and curtail the college program. The bill now goes to the Senate.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department has turned aside a Soviet protest against Pan American Airways' New York and West Berlin.

A State Department spokesman, press officer Richard I. Phillips said Tuesday, "These flights are continuing on a normal basis. The U.S. government will hold the Soviet government responsible for the safety of all American aircraft in the Berlin air corridors."

Studies Planned To See If Victim Was Strangled

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The Montgomery County Coroner and a team of experts plan to begin laboratory studies today to see if the death of a dismemberment victim was caused by strangulation.

Coroner Robert Zipf, assisted by pathologists, radiologists, and x-ray and bone specialists, said the tests will involve the tissue and bones of the neck of the victim, a woman who Dr. Zipf says was between 30 and 40 years old when she was slain.

Dr. Zipf announced the tests Tuesday after an autopsy on the head of the victim failed to show the cause of death.

Various parts of the body have been found in a canal and a gravel pit at Tipp City in neighboring Miami County. One arm was the first member found, and since then the other arm, a leg, the toros and the head have been recovered, leaving one leg still missing.

X rays of the head taken when it was found in the Old Miami-Erie Canal at Tipp City Monday indicated the victim had suffered a frontal skull fracture, but Dr. Zipf said Tuesday's autopsy failed to bear this out.

Old-fashioned and good; cooked noodles tossed with buttered bread crumbs and sauteeed chopped onion.

Coast Guard Reports Body Of One Found

CAMP PERRY, Ohio (AP)—The Coast Guard said the body of one man drowned in Lake Erie off this military base has been found and a search will continue for a second man feared drowned. The man whose body was recovered Tuesday night, was not identified immediately."

The Coast Guard, the Erie Ordinance Depot patrol boat and Port Clinton firemen joined the search after witnesses on the beach reported seeing a commotion in the water near where a group of enlisted men had been diving off a raft. Stationed at Camp Perry at present are several Ohio National Guard units and a group of Army men preparing for the National Rifle and Pistol Matches.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I'm a man in my 50s who has never married. My widowed sister asked me if I would drive her and her three friends (also widows) to the World's Fair next August. I have a 1962 auto and am a good driver. In exchange for the chauffeur service the women have agreed to pay all the car expenses plus $25 each.

At first it seemed like a fine idea but now something is bothering me. We will undoubtedly be having most of our meals together. Since I will be the only man present, I will always be handed the check. Please tell me how to handle the situation. These women are supposed to pay for their own meals but I would feel uncomfortable accepting their money right there in the restaurant. — THINKING AHEAD.

Dear Ahead: Have an understanding in advance that one of the ladies will insist on separate checks when the waitress takes your orders. This is infinitely simpler than trying to figure out who ate what. It will also save you the embarrassment of collecting their money at the table.

Delicate Problem

1-14 — DELICATE Problem ...

Dear Ann: This is a difficult letter to write, but I need your advice.

My wife is ill with an incurable blood disease. The doctors say she can't live more than another five or six weeks. Our son is 14 and our daughter 16. We are trying to be brave and help each other.

My wife has a sister of whom she is very fond. This sister lives out of town and has been here off and on for months. I don't know what we would have done without her.

What I want to know is this: Would it be proper for me to tell my wife's sister (after the funeral of course) that she is welcome to go through my wife's belongings and take whatever she wishes?

It has occurred to me that it may sadden her and that she might prefer not to have constant reminders. Then again she may want her sister's things. What do you say?—H.K.

-:-

Dear H.K.: Before you make such an offer may I suggest you ask your daughter if she would like to have any of her mother's belongings—particularly jewelry.

You could then invite your wife's sister to go through what is left. If she would prefer not to have these reminders she will tell you.

Daddy's Girl

Dear Ann: I'm driving 25 miles to a neighboring town because I don't want anyone (not even you) to know where this letter came from. I hope you will print your advice because I can't possibly send a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Our daughter (I will call her Norma) is 15. She is a normal teen-ager, which is to say a little sloppy, somewhat headstrong and she wants to look exactly like every girl in her crowd. The real problem, however, is her father.

Norma always was "her daddy's girl" but this past year it has become worse than ever. When he leaves the house in the morning he never fails to kiss Norma goodby. Yesterday he was running late and dashed upstairs to give her a goodby kiss. I was right at the door but he forgot to kiss me.

The minute he comes home his first words are, "Where's Norma?" I half suspect she enjoys putting me in the shade. I'm hurt and embarrassed that others might notice it. Should I talk to him — or to her? — SECOND.

-:-

Dear Second: Don't talk to either one of them. Be pleased that your daughter and her father have a warm relationship.

Every girls' first sweetheart is her dad and there is bound to be some sense of competition between a girl and her mother.

As Norma becomes seriously interested in boys the daddy's girl bit will be less intense. So relax and live through this stage as you lived through the others.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

An average of 69,700 public school classrooms have been built every year for the past five, according to the U.S. Office of Education.

Report Given In Service Of 'Gray Ladies'

The Red Cross Gray Ladies have contributed 12,386 hours of work at the two hospitals in the past year, Mrs. Marie Hays, chairman, reported at the meeting of the chapter's Board of Directors Monday night at the Mary Patterson Memorial.

A nominating committee consisting of H. James Allison Jr., Mrs. Lawrence Black and Mrs. Neil Shope was named to select a slate of candidates. It will report at the September meeting for the election.

Plans for a 30-minute panel at future board meetings to acquaint members with Red Cross work was approved. Mrs. Black will be in charge.

Don Ross, water safety director, reported no more registrations can be accepted for the second swimming and life saving program to begin July 6. There are 200 enrolled in the course now under way, he said.

A discussion also was held on co-ordinating the fund raising program with the Community Fund. The chapter's representatives to the Community Fund are Don Baxter, chapter fund-raising chairman, Harold Allison and H. Jud English, chapter chairman.

A discussion was held on disaster shelter and mass feeding but it was tabled until a future meeting.

Even Model In Store Window 'Shy' In Topless Swim Suit

What's East Liverpool's reaction to those topless swim suits creating controversy from coast to coast?

It appeared to be mainly curiosity when Zack's — daring to be different — outfitted a mannequin in a black topless swim suit in its showroom window on Market St. near the Diamond Tuesday afternoon.

Passers-by usually glanced at the window, walked a step further, and then did a quick double-take.

"This is it! We think the two-piece suit is nicer, don't you?" reads a sign displayed beneath the bashful mannequin.

(Bashfully — she faced the interior of the store, showing only her backside to pedestrians.)

In general, pedestrians would give a quick look to satisfy their curiosity and then hurry along, perhaps stealing a sly glance backwards, or up and down the street to see if they had been noticed by a friend.

"We want the people to see what the suit looks like," was the comment of Donald D. Lynn of Zack's. He said his store is the first in the country to actually display the Rudi Gernreich creation on a mannequin in a showroom window. Others have simply displayed them without mannequins or advertise they are in stock, while some have snubbed the suits entirely.

The bare - bosom bathing suit of Gernreich comes somewhat above the waist, but from there to the shoulders there are only two thin straps, allowing plenty of exposure topside.

Asked if Zack's had sold any of the woman's swim suits without the conventional top, Lynn would only comment that "there are orders for private pool use."

Lynn's personal opinion is that the topless suits are not for public beaches or pools.

Beaver Boosters Set Horsepulling

Further plans for a horsepulling contest July 4 at the Beaver Local High School were made at a meeting of the Beaver Local Boosters Club Tuesday night at the school.

Members are soliciting advertisements for the event, with the placards to be placed on the horse teams.

Tickets are available from members.

Plans were also discussed for a horse show July 26.

James McLaughlin, president, was in charge. Bills totaling $105 were paid. Mrs. Leo Jenkins gave a third reading of revised bylaws, which were approved.

Leslie Jones reported on plans for an auction Aug. 8.

Next meeting will be July 14.

Ohio Air Guards Show Power Of Jets In Training

ALPENA, Mich. (AP)—Summer training reached maximum intensity today as Ohio Air National Guard pilots unleashed the destructive power of their jet fighters at four widely separated target bases.

It was the first time since training began last Saturday that all four ranges — two in Michigan and two in Wisconsin —were in use.

Two of the ranges over northern Lake Huron and above Lake Michigan off Milwaukee, are for air-to-air gunnery. The other two, at Camp Grayling, Mich. and in north-central Wisconsin, are for air-to - ground weapon delivery.

About 1,500 Ohio air guardsmen will be training in the two states until July 4.

The 178th Tactical Fighter Group from Springfield, 179th Group from Mansfield, and 121st Tactical Fighter Wing Headquarters from Columbus are at Capt. Phelps Collins Air National Guard Base near Alpena in northeastern Michigan.

The 121st Tactical Fighter Group from Columbus is at Jerome Volk Air National Guard Base near Camp Douglas in north-central Wisconsin.

Most earthquake faults are under the sea. One under land is the San Andreas Rift in California, which triggered the catastrophic San Francisco earthquake in 1906.

Power Reins Held By PRI Party

By BERT QUINT
Herald Tribune News Service

MEXICO CITY — Last November, when the board of directors of that super-efficient company known as the Institutional Revolutionary party (PRI), whose business is the running of this country, chose its candidate for president of Mexico, they found themselves with a problem on their hands.

Gen. Alfonso Corona del Rosal, executive secretary of the party that has been in power since the 1920s, put it this way:

"Our biggest difficulty in the electoral campaign will be to find somebody to run against our man."

It wasn't that "our man," Gustavo Diaz Ordaz, then secretary of interior affairs, was such an overwhelmingly popular figure. Few Mexicans knew him, and fewer knew what he thought about the issues of the day. What was and is overwhelming is the strength of his party, so much so that anybody running against the PRI candidates for the country's major elective offices does so just for the exercise. In 1958, for example, the PRI candidate, now President Adolfo Lopez Mateos, got 90.4 per cent of the vote.

BUT SOMEBODY was found to make the race — a 44-year-old lawyer named Jose Gonzalez Torres of the National Action party (PAN). And just as Diaz Ordaz has been campaigning furiously as though he thought he had a chance of losing, Gonzales Torres has been campaigning just as though he thought he had a chance of winning.

With the possible, but not likely, exception of the PAN candidate himself, nobody really thinks that come Election Day, July 5, Gonzalez Torres will even come close to Diaz Ordaz in the voting. But the fact that the PAN has fielded a candidate at all is significant.

First of all, it's good for Mexico because it keeps the dream of an eventual, effective multi-party system alive. There are other parties, too, but they are even smaller than the PAN, which ranks as the major opposition party, and so have little more than propaganda or nuisance value.

Though Gonzalez Torres won't win the presidency, at least some of his party's people will win seats in the lower house of Congress and maybe even a couple of senatorial seats as well.

However, the major benefit to the country of Gonzales Torres' participation is that it gives expression to an important segment of the population.

THE PAN, a right - wing, church-backed, but not terribly reactionary party, does not by any means represent a majority viewpoint. But it does represent a sizable minority which includes important economic, professional, and middle - class interests.

The airing of its opinions is healthy and helpful in a country that is neither a democracy nor a dictatorship, but that has elements of both and that is politically more mature than many of its neighbors which are dictatorships or claim to be democracies.

These opinions, as enunciated by Gonzalez Torres, include the following points:

1. The PAN would break relations with Cuba. (Mexico today is one of only four Latin countries that still maintain those relations.) It would resume relations with Spain which were broken in 1939 when Gen. Francisco Franco overthrew the Spanish Republican government and became dictator. Mexico still recognizes the Republican government - in-exile.

2. The PAN agrees with the PRI that the rural problem is the country's most serious challenge. But it opposes the ejido system in which poor peasants are given land taken from big landowners and are permitted to work it on a communal basis and control but not sell it.

The government's feeling is that if the peasants were permitted to sell this land, they would because of economic necessity, and the land would end up in the hands of land-grabbers again. Gonzalez Torres wants the peasant to be given the land as private property so that he "is not a slave of the government."

3. Labor unions should be non-political. Today, they are for the most part political organizations, belonging to the PRI, supporting it, and getting advantages as a direct result of this affiliation.

4. Religious teaching should be permitted. Now, as stipulated by the Mexican Constitution, only the state is allowed to engage in education. This stipulation was intended to keep religion out of the schools, a reaction to the days when the church practically ruled the country.

The PAN argues that "of 27 million persons of an age and condition so as to be able to read and write, only 10 million are literate." All kinds of educators should be welcome, it says, and people should be able to choose the type of education they want for their children.

5. While the PAN agrees that the state should make the rules for business and industry, it feels that it should leave those fields to private enterprise. Under the PRI, the state has played an increasingly greater role, entering into more and more businesses. The government claims that this increased intervention is necessary because private initiative has failed to do the job.

The PAN's viewpoints are not those which will guide Mexico during the next six-year presidential period. But there have been indications that a growing number of Mexicans are accepting them. Just how many will become more apparent on July 5.

Code Of Conduct

Teen-Age 'Laws' Listed For New York Students

By JOSEPH MICHALAK
Herald Tribune News Service

NEW YORK—" 'Going steady' is dangerous; it should be discouraged unanimously by all parents."

" 'Single dating' should be discouraged."

"We should disapprove of car ownership—the use of family car is a 'privilege' and not a 'right.' "

"No alcoholic beverages of any kind should be served to students at any time or any place."

"Dress should be in conformance with standards of good taste and moderation."

"Students should not be allowed to smoke."

These are among the mandates given commandments by which the parents of pupils in Carle Place, N.Y., school will live, starting in September, whether their children like them or not.

The usual list of "voluntary guide lines" is contained in a "Code of Conduct for Parents" released recently by school superintendent John Moehle, who originally suggested it.

They are the result of a year of preparation by Moehle and 18 parents in the community and have been endorsed by most of the town's civic groups and the faculties and Parent-Teacher organizations.

"There is a direct correlation," Moehle said in an interview, "between ownership of a car, use of alcohol, and going steady, and the poor work that results in school."

He said this extended to the way that pupils dress.

"If you look like a bum," he said, "you think and act like one."

The Carle Place code makes 11:30 p.m. the ultimate curfew hour for house parties on non-school nights.

The other curfew hours for social occasions on non-school nights are as follows: 5th and 6th graders, 8:30 p.m.; 7th and 8th graders, 10; 9th graders, 10:30; 10th graders, 11, and 11th graders, 11:30.

The other "crystal clear positions" taken by the code include the following:

1. "There should be no dating on weekday nights when school is in session the following day."

2. "We should discourage all attitudes of teen-agers leading to early marriages."

3. "House parties should be held only when properly chaperoned by adults."

4. "We should know at all times where and with whom our sons and daughters are spending their time while away from home."

Indication Of Communists' Friendship

Reds Pump Men, Money, Machines Into Zanzibar

ZANZIBAR (AP) — The Soviet Union, Communist China and East Germany are pumping men, money and machines into Zanzibar.

President Julis Nyerere of the new Republic of Tanganyika and Zanzibar is trying to assert his authority in the island 25 miles off the East African mainland.

Zanzibar's own president, Abeid Karume, 59, a Moslem, probably has no deep love of communism. But the island leader, a seaman for 22 years, seems unversed in the ways of Communist infiltration.

Karume is the idol of the Zanzibar Africans and the island's most powerful single personality.

Asked this month about Communists in positions of authority in Zanzibar, he replied: "What are one or two men? I have the power and I have my own eyes and ears."

Karume cites generous Communist aid as an indication of the bloc's friendship and says anyone who helps Zanzibar is welcome.

Some 150 technicians and experts from the Communist bloc are believed to be working in Zanzibar.

British civil servants have been replaced. East Germans have taken over the Finance Ministry and are helping run the radio station, Information Ministry, schools and medical services. They are doing preliminary work on projects to rehouse thousands of Africans huddled in squalid shanties outside Zanzibar town.

The Red Chinese are firmly ensconced in the agriculture department and are planning rice growing and other farm schemes to reduce the island's dependence on cloves.

China has granted Zanzibar an interest-free loan of $14 million, much of which will be in the form of equipment and services.

Soviet technicians have taken over running of the harbor and providing officers for Zanzibar's two coastal passenger ships. Soviet instructors are training about 400 recruits in the people's liberation army in the use of their new Soviet equipment.

Some of this was displayed at the big May Day parade, "but you didn't see all of it," says Maj. Ali Mahfoud, the army's Havana-indoctrinated second in command.

The army largely is officered by Zanzibaris of Arab origin and small groups have been sent behind the Iron Curtain for further training. Other Zanzibari troops reportedly are being sent to Indonesia.

As a result of Nyerere's influence, Zanzibari troops have discarded their Cuban - style caps and uniforms and now wear the standard green berets and uniforms of the Tanganyika forces.

Communist literature is everywhere. The Soviet Embassy hands it out to school children. The works of Mao Tze-tung crowd bookshops.

The United States embassy has also been permitted to reopen its reading room since Zanzibar and Tanganyika agreed to unite.

Western diplomats are hopeful Karume's African nationalism may come out on top and that Western presence may slowly be re-established.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Pre-Teener Aims To Get On The Beam

One sentence in a letter from a 12-year-old explains her problem.

"I look fine except for my stomach and hips, where it looks as though I've stored 50 pounds! I'm 5' 3", 12 years old, and I weigh 119 pounds.

Ida Jean Kain

"So far I've lost three pounds, without even being hungry. Well, I must admit that the first couple of days I was very hungry, but not any more. My goal is 105 pounds, and I think I'll make it.

"I eat good meals but not as much — I don't stuff, and I haven't touched one sweet thing. That for me is wonderful! Since my family on both sides tends to be heavy, and since I've had hepatitis, I must try extra hard.

-:-

"I GET MY exercise by walking to school and during recess and gym. I'll write you when I reach 105 pounds."

You are a young lady with an unsinkable spirit. . .so let's get on the beam. Your trouble stems in large part from swayback. When the small of the back sways in, the outcurve of the abdomen is accentuated. Straighten out your posture and you'll look great at 110 pounds of weight.

Try this posture line - up: Stand against edge of door. Head, shoulders, back of hips, calf and heels should touch door edge. With middle muscles pulled up strongly, hollow at back should allow only enough space to slide fingers through. If the space is big enough to accommodate your whole fist, you need an exercise to counteract swayback. Talk with your gym teacher, and ask for special exercises.

In the meantime, try this upside down exercise. It's fun: Position: Sitting on floor, legs straight out. Now ups-a-daisy. . .roll back until weight is resting on back of head and shoulders. Have upper arms on floor, and hands braced on hips. In short, you're in the high bicycle position.

ACTION: Swing alternate legs back to touch toes to floor beyond head. Once you get the gist of it, this exercise is easy, and it helps to round out that excessive curve as well as slim the hips.

Make sure you sit beautifully. Never sit half way out on chair seat with shoulders resting against back. This fosters swayback.

As you have found, the practice of eating smaller meals cuts appetite down to size. You are on the right track, too, in avoiding sweets and eating good meals. These are your growing years and the nutrients essential for growth are furnished in milk, meat, cheese, fish and chicken; vegetables; whole grains, cereals and bread; and fresh fruits. Eating sweets is largely habit.

Tempers Flare When Hays, Patman Engage In Quarrel

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tempers flared in the House Tuesday, when Reps. Wayne L. Hays of Ohio and Wright Patman of Texas engaged in an hour-long quarrel over funds to investigate the Federal Reserve System.

The exchange between the two Democrats began when Hays, chairman of a House administration subcommittee, accused Patman of inspiring newspaper stories and editorials and others implying that Hays was part of a conspiracy to block the investigation of the Federal Reserve System.

Patman, chairman of the Banking Committee, denied anything to do with the publication.

Patman had wanted to sign contracts with several economists and others to work on the continuing investigation, but Hays' subcommittee had disapproved the contracts.

Patman said Hays demanded that he obtain agreement of the senior Republican member of the banking committee, but Hays said he merely wanted proof that a majority of the banking committee favored the contracts.

Hays said Patman hired experts favorable to his views, paid them with committee funds and then used them as witnesses, but Patman said it was cheaper to contract for specific research items than to "put the people on the payroll."

Gov. Wallace Rebuffed At Jaycees Convention

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Delegates from Connecticut and Massachusetts rebuffed Alabama Gov. George C. Wallace as he delivered the keynote address Tuesday to the national Junior Chamber of Commerce convention.

Expressing "shock and disbelief" that Wallace would keynote the convention, the 75-member Connecticut delegation stayed away from the Dallas Memorial Auditorium.

The Massachusetts delegation remained seated as some 7,500 other delegates gave Wallace a standing ovation.

Robert E. Joyce of West Haven, Conn., said the Connecticut delegation did not object to Wallace's addressing the convention as such. But he said they were opposed to his making the keynote address.

"The function of the keynote speaker is to set the tone of the convention," the statement said.

Wallace criticized the U.S. Supreme Court in a prepared speech that was often interrupted by loud cheers. One man shouted "Go, George, go!" and several Confederate flags were waved in the audience.

The Alabama governor, who said earlier in the day that he was still actively seeking the American presidency, said recent decisions of the high court and other federal courts have resulted in a "judicial oligarchy."

He was highly critical of the new civil rights bill and referred to the measure as "the federal penal code."

Father's Day Marked At Pughtown Grange

A Father's Day program was presented at a meeung of the Fairview Grange Tuesday night at the Pughtown Grange Hall.

Readings were given by Mrs. Betty Glenn and Mrs. Mary Herron. A handkerchief was presented each father.

The project committee reported $29 netted in a recent dinner served the Ruritan Club.

Lunch was served 28 by Mrs. Thomas Cunningham and committee. A cake centered the table. Next meeting will be July 14.

Methodist Delegates Told Need For Outdoor Worship

LAKESIDE, Ohio (AP)—Delegates at the Methodist North-East Ohio Annual Conference have been told there is a need for outdoor worship services in mobile home communities, state parks and resort areas to increase the denomination's membership.

Rev. Howard Mumma, Akron district superintendent, urged these means in his state of the church report at the opening session Tuesday.

"If we can get the people to listen outdoors, then they will eventually come into the church to worship." Three million Ohioans do not belong to a church, he declared, adding that only renewal of the church will save local congregations from becoming self - admiration societies.

"Too long have laymen regarded the church as a nice club for nice people, allowing themselves to be content with nominal Christianity," the Rev. Mr. Mumma said. He said church members are developing "spectatoritis" by trying to buy the services of professionals to do their praying.

Expressing concern for what it called the increasing number of businesses open on Sunday, the report stated, "It is time churchmen throughout made their witness for the preservation of the sabbath by refusing to buy on Sunday."

Senate Bid Spurned By Bob Kennedy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy begins a sentimental mission to Germany tonight on the heels of his announcement that he will not seek the Democratic senatorial nomination in New York.

Kennedy's brief statement Tuesday on the Senate race shed no further light on his future. But it left open the door to any invitation from President Johnson to join him as vice-presidential nominee on the Democratic ticket.

Thus ended long weeks of speculation whether Kennedy would accede to the urgings of New York friends and Democratic leaders, move to the Empire State and seek the nomination to run against Republican Sen. Kenneth B. Keating.

"I deeply appreciate the loyalty and friendship of those who have urged me to run and who believe I could perform a service for the people of New York," Kennedy said in a statement handed out at the Justice Department.

"However, in fairness to them and to end speculation, I wish to state that I will not be a candidate for United States senator from New York," he said.

There was little elaboration on Kennedy's statement from the Justice Department. But two key factors emerged as most influential.

One is the civil rights picture. Final passage of the rights bill, with all of its enforcement problems, is imminent. The beginnings of the "long, hot summer" in race relations already are evident. The attorney general is the nation's top civil rights strategist. He has committed himself to staying on the job through Johnson's present term. And his hands will be full of civil rights chores.

The second factor is his brother, Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., whose back was broken in a plane crash last week.

Tuesday's decision threw into sharper focus Robert Kennedy's role as head of the Kennedy family since the assassination last November of his brother, President John F. Kennedy. His injured younger brother — up for re-election this fall — will add to the demands on Robert Kennedy's time. And to run in New York, he feels, would require an immediate campaign.

The attorney general will speak this Friday on the first anniversary of John F. Kennedy's stirring speech to Berliners, when he proclaimed himself one of them in spirit. Robert Kennedy will speak from the identical spot in the John F. Kennedy Square in West Berlin.

From Germany he will travel to Poland, next to London, before returning during the first week in July.

New Members Seated By Chester's Kiwanis

The Rev. Robert Schondelmayer, pastor of the First Christian Church of Chester, was installed as a member of the Chester Kiwanis Club at a meeting Tuesday night at the City Park.

Alvin Fineman and Albert Kell were in charge of the ceremony.

The club will meet Tuesday night at the home of Eugene Seeley, secretary, for the traditional "Beanhole Bean Picnic Supper."

Assistant Grid Coach Chosen For Palestine

EAST PALESTINE — David T. MacKay of Dover, a June graduate of Muskingum College, was hired by the Board of Education Monday night to teach social science and serve as an assistant coach in football.

The board also will establish a third grade at the Elma Sutherin Elementary School where there has been only fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

Fine Imposed On Man After Pool Invasion

Richard A. Peters, 1172 Harker Ave., one of five persons taken into custody by police Monday midnight for an alleged after-hours "invasion" of the municipal swimming pool at Thompson Park, was fined $25 and costs today when he pleaded guilty before Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff on a charge of trespassing.

Patrolman Paul A. Burson told the court today he and Patrolman David Mumaw were dispatched to the park after Supt. Joseph Walters complained that persons were on the pool premises, although the gates were closed and locked. The officer said he apprehended Peters hiding in the grass inside the fence.

Four juveniles — three girls and a boy — were referred to Juvenile Court at Lisbon as an aftermath of the same incident, the officer said.

Queried by the court, Peters said he is on leave from a Navy base at Pensacola, Fla. He is due to return Saturday, he said.

"This is not your first brush with the law, despite your wonderful parents," the court told Peters. "Only the fact you are in the Navy has saved you from going to jail—I tell you that frankly!"

Lisbon Pair Released From Salem Hospital

Mr. and Mrs. James Caldwell, 115½ W. Lincoln Way, Lisbon, were released from Salem City Hospital Tuesday after treatment for injuries suffered when their car was rammed by another on Route 30 west of Lisbon.

Caldwell, 50, watchman at the Columbiana County Home, was cited for failure to yield the right-of-way after he drove from County Rd. 412 into the path of another auto in a fog area.

Caldwell suffered possible rib injuries and cuts and bruises, and his wife, Pearl, 51, a nurse's aide at the home, received an arm injury and cut of the leg.

Rogers Youth Listed 'Critical' With Burns

He suffered first degree burns of the chest and third degree burns of the arms, shoulders and hands in the mishap at the farm of Irwin Hayes on the Carmel-Achor Rd.

Wellsville American Legion Plans Annual FamilyPicnic

A committee to plan for the annual family picnic was named at a meeting of Wellsville American Legion Post 70 Monday night.

Appointed were Harry Crawford, Bill Stillwell, Herman Liberatore and Harry Excell. The time and place will be decided by the committee and announced later.

Sam Maylone, commander, conducted business. It was reported remodeling in the kitchen is about complete.

A report was heard on a proposal to put a compound on the tile floor to keep from being marked. Air conditioning and cooling was discussed.

Crawford, second vice commander, reported on the dance and anniversary observance held at the post Saturday night, terming it a success.

The post voted to hire the Blue Shades Orchestra to play for the New Year's Eve dance.

A membership drive was discussed at length and an "all-out" campaign is planned to see if the old post record of 400, established in 1953, can be broken.

A drive was opened to help collect trading stamps for the band at the Soldiers & Sailors Orphanage at Xenia. New uniforms are needed. Anyone with stamps to donate may contact the post home or any member.

Terry O'Hara, the post delegate to Boys' State at Ohio University, will speak at the meeting next Monday night.

Scout Executive Addresses Club

Bennett Taylor of Lisbon, a lieutenant colonel in the Army Reserve and Columbiana Boy Scout Council executive, explained the duties of both jobs at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Piatt's Tea Room.

His topic was "Death of a Town." He said most people fear a city being destroyed by atomic bombs, but pointed out there are many other ways just as effective that can be used by the enemy.

He said a city can be destroyed by germ warfare, pollution of the water system, cutting the electricity or the gas.

Taylor said as a military man it is his duty to protect the country and as a scout executive, it is his duty to teach boys to live in the face of the disasters of the world and maintain a desire to protect their country.

Fourteen attended.

Saved For Lovers

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — "Lovers Leap," a scenic stretch of property overlooking Birmingham, has been saved from the clutches of commercialism. A Circuit Judge ruled that a 1935 oral agreement by Jonas W. Schwab in which he dedicated the favorite spot to the public is valid forever even though Schwab did not put it in writing. A man who purchased the property from Schwab's heirs had planned to erect a filling station and tearoom on the spot.

Mahoning Men Jailed On Delinquency Count

LISBON — Ludovic George Nicoladis, 42, and Charles Starr, 39, both of Youngstown, were fined $300 and sentenced to 60-day terms in County Jail when they appeared Tuesday afternoon before Juvenile Judge Louis Tobin on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a 17-year-old Columbiana area girl.

Cited in the same case, James W. Robb, 28, of East Palestine R. D. 1 was given a suspended six-month jail term.

Out Of The Air

TV Networks Broaden Convention Staffs

According to an NBC News press release, that network will go to the July 13 GOP convention in San Francisco and the Aug. 24 Democratic convention in Atlantic City with 550 newsmen and technicians, over 50 tons of equipment (including "walking TV stations"), 50,000 feet of camera cable, and 200,000 feet of wire.

Alan Gill

"And who cares?" said Robert Northshield, the general manager of NBC News who will supervise its election year coverage. He gestured toward a public relations man who had just leaned into the room. "That pest comes in here five times a day to ask me how many feet of cable we'll have out there and I tell him, 'Enough, enough.' What does it matter?

"Sure we've got equipment that's just a bit improved. And the logistics will be better, too. We'll have better pictures, better sound, more interesting places to shoot. What we've really got that matters, though, is people."

-:-

ELMER LOWER, president of ABC News, Special Events and Public Affairs, said: "Lenses, gadgets, gimmicks — we've got 'em all. I'm sure you'll see articles about them all over the newspapers and magazines. But I don't think it makes a terrifically big hit with the public, any more than the public is interested in network competition.

"Who cares whether the CBS eye on a microphone shows up on an ABC screen? I could see a huge ABC sign on the NBC screen and I'd have no objection; but I'd have no advantage, either."

"Among the three networks," said the executive producer of the CBS News Election Unit, Bill Leonard, "there isn't a single piece of equipment that would give anybody enough of an edge to put your foot in. It's not a question of 'We've got tanks, they've got rifles'; it's how well you organize the tank corps, how fast you can move 'em.

"Viewers will notice, of course, the great anchor booths we'll all have at the Cow Palace this year. Hell, they're not anchor booths, they're anchor houses.

"ONE OF the paradoxes regarding equipment is that while the raging, scratching, clawing network competition has never been more bitter, cooperation has never been as extensive. 'There'll be a great pooling of pictures at the airport, along the parade routes, from the helicopter. The public isn't served by three networks telecasting from three helicopters.

"The important thing about the walkie-talkies, peepie-peepies and everything else you can think of it that they are increasingly freeing the TV reporter from the bonds of his medium. It's like your pencil and paper. You're saddled with them. But you can go anywhere with them, take notes standing or sitting. The TV reporter, who's hung up on a camera and a microphone, is learning more and more how to make his tools easy as pencil and paper."

BEHIND the equipment and the batteries of correspondents through the convention weeks will stand the Lowers, Leonards and Northshields, making the decisions of when to pull away from an important interview in order to eavesdrop on a vital caucus meeting.

"I don't think we've ever interrupted a benediction," said Leonard, "though nothing's really sacred at a convention. I suppose you'd even cut from a keynote, though, if Ike had just arrived at the airport or if there'd just been an invasion of Cyprus. It depends. Everything depends.

"I remember a horse trainer of mine, years ago, who'd been readying the horse for the race. A moment later, we were standing side by side watching 'em run. 'Look there,' he shouted, very violently, 'he's all lathered up!' 'Is that good?' I hollered. He had his face up to mine and he hollered back, 'It depends'."

Boy Still Alive After Train Cuts Off Arms, Legs

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two women watched Tuesday as a teen-age boy leaped from car to car on a slow-moving train —then slipped and plunged to the tracks.

"I shouted to him, real loud, to lie still and not move," said Mrs. Lois Walsh.

The boy apparently heard. He ducked his head.

Then, said Mrs. Walsh "something beneath one of the cars caught him and turned him over and over beneath the wheels."

When ambulance attendants reached the scene, they called for the coroner. The apparently lifeless body of Walter Felder lay between the tracks. The train's wheels had amputated his arms and legs.

Then attendants detected a spark of life. Walter, 13, was hospitalized. Five surgeons battled to keep him alive. In a corridor outside, his mother, Ann McGruder, 42, waited. "My boy is strong," she said. "He's very husky. I'm sure if anyone can pull through this, he can. He's a real boy."

More than 90 million pounds of various spices are imported by the United States each year.

Bringing Up A Family

By DR. GARRY MYERS

Long Trips Can Be Uncomfortable

Many whole families go together on motor trips, especially in summer. These trips can prove enjoyable and educational for the children and parents. Unfortunately, many parents attempt trips too long for comfort and safety. So many families travel across the continent and back just to boast about how fast they made the trip. They are constantly on the move, without taking time for relaxation or visiting interesting places.

Dr. Garry Myers

When the parents set their goals to make 400, 500 or more miles a day, all members of the group may grow tired and irritable. What's more, traffic hazards increase with fatigue and emotional strain of the driver.

—:—

TWO OR THREE hundred miles a day is a more sensible schedule. Then there will be time for stopping frequently when the younger children may run about, the older ones may explore and all the family can get relaxation.

When the children get unduly tired, they are inclined to quarrel and fight more and enjoyment within the group declines. Serious hazards may arise when children quarrel and fight, distracting the driver. Wise parents strictly forbid violent quarreling among the children, especially in a moving car.

If they can't prevent it by reseating the children or by quiet suggestions, the driver should pull off the main highway and the parents should then apply a belt, switch or paddle to the young battlers so decisively that there won't be any more fighting.

Provide and devise ways to enjoy the hours spent in the car. Have safe toys for the youngest children, games the older children can play and all sorts of word games most can engage in to promote hours of peace and companionship. Also singing familiar songs together can prove delightful. Some members of the group may lead in teaching new songs.

AT A PUBLIC library or a book store, some inexpensive books or booklets may be found containing many suggestions for fun together on a motor trip.

Before leaving on a motor trip with the family have the car inspected, especially its tires. Why set out with poor tires, or a car likely to break down on the trip? Money spent for mechanical safety of the car is a wise investment.

Long before the motor trip begins, parents of older children should encourage them to help plan the trip and to study maps and locate special places they wish to see; also these children might read books, tour pamphlets and the like that give considerable information about the places they plan to visit.

A motor trip, even across the continent, may not add much more education to the average child under five or six than a short trip near home. But for children who can read, the trip may afford considerable information not only of present interest but also of future usefulness to them in their schoolwork next year.

MANY TEACHERS motivate children who have been on trips to recall much of what they learned, to contribute it in their class discussions and to incorporate it in their written compositions.

Let me add a note here to teachers. Please be sensitive to the feelings of those children in your class who have not been away on trips. They might feel hurt as you encourage children who have traveled a lot during the summer to tell about their experiences in the classroom.

If you are skillful you will find ways to have children at school to tell and write about interesting experiences they have had at home.

One Of Barriers Cleared To Reopen Dixie Schools

FARMVILLE, Va. (AP)—One of the last barriers has been cleared away for reopening public schools in Prince Edward County, closed five years ago to avoid desegregation.

The County Board of Supervisors, acting under a federal court ordered voted 4-2 Tuesday to appropriate school operating funds for this fall.

U.S. Dist. Judge Oren R. Lewis, carrying out a mandate from the U.S. Supreme Court, had given the Board of Supervisors until Thursday to act.

The $189,000 county appropriation, plus state funds, will provide classes for about 1,600 pupils — the number of Negro school - age children in Prince Edward.

Public schools will be operated "without racial discrimination," said the board, but most white children are expected to continue classes in the private, segregated schools they have attended since 1959.

An appropriation of $375,000 was approved for tuition grants, which will go to white children attending private schools, if and when Judge Lewis lifts an injunction against continued use of the schools. The private schools had an enrollment of 1,242 for the term which began last September.

The supervisors raised personal and real property taxes from $1 per $100 to $2.50 and doubled the 30 cents per $100 merchants capital tax. Judge Lewis had ordered the supervisors to levy taxes if necessary to raise school funds.

The County School Board had asked for $339,000. The $189,000 is less than a third of the $739,000 in state and county funds appropriated for public schools the last year the county operated them.

County School Supt. T. J. McIlwaine, said he did not know if the $189,000 voted by the supervisors would be adequate.

One remaining obstacle to reopening the schools is the hiring of teachers. The term begins in less than three months.

The supervisors' action was welcomed by Gov. Albertis S. Harrison Jr., who said, "It would appear that this represents a bona fide effort by the governing body of Prince Edward County to comply with the order of the federal court."

Negro children went without formal education for four years. Last summer a system of free schools supported by public contributions was organized. It is to end in August.

High Court Grants Musmanno's Appeal

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The State Supreme Court granted an appeal Tuesday to Judge Michael A. Musmanno against a ruling that votes cast in blank spaces in the April 28 primary election don't count.

Chief Justice John C. Bell Jr. fixed July 1 for a special session of the state's highest court to hear argument in the matter.

Judge Musmanno, a member of the Supreme Court, and Genevieve Blatt, secretary of internal affairs, are in a tight contest for the Democratic Party's U.S. Senate nomination. Miss Blatt leads by 636 votes.

Cloud Again Says Special Session Impractical Now

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, has reiterated his view that a special session of the legislature to deal with congressional redistricting and legislative reapportionment is impractical for this summer.

Cloud reaffirmed his belief that a later session appears more likely.

Cloud restated his views Tuesday in commenting on reports that Gov. James A. Rhodes is "thinking about" the desirability of early action.

The speaker said it would be virtually impossible for all legislators to be on hand for a summer session. He explained that many lawmakers will be away on vacation with their families and that the national conventions of both political parties limit time available for such a session.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Wednesday, June 24, the 176th day of 1964. There are 190 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1948, the Soviet Union blockaded all land traffic between occupied Berlin and West Germany in a dispute over currency. The next day American and British planes began to supply the city in a gigantic airlift which lasted 321 days.

On this date in 1520, the Spanish conqueror of Mexico, Hernando Cortez, entered Mexico City.

In 1793, the first French Republican constitution was adopted.

In 1940, Marshal Petain's French government signed an armistice with Italy.

In 1941, President Franklin D. Roosevelt pledged that all possible aid would be granted to Russia.

In 1945, Adolf Hitler's personal flag was dragged in the dust as the feature of a victory parade in Moscow.

Ten years ago . . . Many areas of Des Moines, Iowa, were flooded when the Des Moines River reached a record high crest.

Five years ago . . . Vice President Richard Nixon and Soviet Premier Khrushchev met for the first time at a conference in Moscow.

One year ago . . . The Internal Revenue Service liberalized some of its new rules on expense-account tax deduction following protests by business leaders.

Lausche Demands Senate Restudy Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Frank J. Lausche, D - Ohio, charging that the $5.246 billion space authorization bill "went through the Senate like lightning," was among several senators who demanded Tuesday that the measure be reconsidered.

Yielding to the demands, the Senate agreed to reconsider its approval of the measure. Among other things the bill authorized $770,000 for the Lewis Research Center at Cleveland and Sandusky, Ohio.

Junior Editors Quiz on BRIDGES

QUESTION: Why do soldiers cross foot bridges out of step?

ANSWER: When a large body of soldiers is marching and all the men put their right feet down at the same time, it creates a vibration or pull on what they are walking over. When their left feet are put down, a pull is exerted in a different direction. Between the two, a swaying motion may be set up if the structure they are walking over is capable of swaying. In the case of a small bridge this may become amplified or enlarged to dangerous proportions. When the command "Route Step!" is given the soldiers break step, each walking differently, removing the danger of swaying.

Suspension bridges have a particular tendency to sway—think of how easily a hammock sways—since they are suspended at both ends. A suspension bridge built in 1940 over the Tacoma Narrows began to sway in a storm and the central span collapsed. But modern engineers overcome sway by using powerful "trusses" — structures of metal arms placed along the sides in zig-zag shapes. Unequal distribution of weight causes a bridge to sway, but the trusses distribute the weight of the load evenly on the supporting cables, making the bridge perfectly safe.

★ ★ ★

FOR YOU TO DO: Look in newspapers and magazines and you will find many pictures showing truss work, not only in bridges but in cranes and in construction of buildings. These trusses are all doing the same thing, making the structures rigid by distributing the weight.

Congress, Courts Seek To Correct Rights Issue

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was supposed to have been done almost 100 years ago. But the Supreme Court was different then. The mood of the nation and the times were different. And Negroes? They had no power, hardly a voice.

The civil rights bill which Congress is going to pass now is in essence a repetition of what was tried after the Civil War. If it had worked then, the history of America would have been different.

Before the war Southern "black codes" imposed penalties on Negro slaves not only for crimes but as human beings. They couldn't testify against a white man; it was a crime to teach them to read.

The Civil War, and the 13th Amendment of 1865, abolished slavery but new "black codes" began to appear. The freedmen weren't freemen. The codes put restrictions on them that did not apply to white men.

Strong-willed men in the Republican - run Congress, overshadowing both the president and the Supreme Court, rushed through two additional amendments, the 14th and 15th.

The 14th, making Negroes citizens, said no state could deprive them of the privileges and immunities of citizens; and the 15th said no state could deny citizens the right to vote.

Thus Congress sought to free Negroes—there were 4 million slaves at the time of the war, 27 million whites—in their social and political life. Negroes now number about 20 million in a population of 192 million.

To make Negroes' citizenship real Congress backed up the amendments with a series of civil rights acts: the protection of all laws in all states, assurance of voting rights, protection against the Ku Klux Klan, and so on.

One in particular, passed in 1875, said Negroes must have equal treatment in inns, public conveyances on land or water, theaters, and amusement places.

But, despite all this effort by Congress, by then Southern states had begun passing segregation laws. And in the North, Negroes didn't get equal treatment. They were discriminated against everywhere.

It took eight years after that 1875 act for Negroes to take to the Supreme Court five cases of discrimination which, they felt, violated the law. For example, the case of a Northern theater which refused to admit Negroes.

By then the Northern politicians were getting tired of the struggle to get Negroes equal treatment. The Supreme Court reflected this mood.

This was how it interpreted that 1875 act: It was only intended, the court said, to forbid states to pass laws denying Negroes equal treatment; the law didn't apply to discrimination by individual white people.

Southern states piled up segregation laws and in 1896, the Supreme Court blessed such laws by reasoning that was fallacious on the face of it: the court said Negroes could be segregated so long as they got equal treatment with white men.

The treatment was, and became, very unequal. Between 1875 and 1957 Congress passed no more civil rights acts. From 1896 until 1954 that separate-but-equal doctrine of the court remained the law of the land.

In time, a long time, Negroes once again began to seek action by the government to get treatment truly equal. Any appeal for the first half of this century was hopeless. Negroes hoped the court would undo the 1896 ruling.

But it never did until 1954. It knocked out, beginning in the 1930s, various forms of unequal treatment, like back seats on a bus. But until 1954, it never declared the 1896 court wrong by saying the principle of segregation was wrong.

Then it did so in its ruling banning public school segregation. Stimulated by that, Congress passed a civil rights act in 1957, and another in 1960. These were mainly aimed at protecting Negroes' right to vote. Contrary to the 15th Amendment of 1870, Negroes were kept from voting in many areas.

Now Congress is about to pass one more civil rights act, once more to strengthen Negroes' voting protections and, among other things, prohibit discrimination against Negroes in motels, hotels, restaurants and places of amusement if those places affect interstate commerce.

It's a little iffy and fulfillment will take time. But Congress and the court now are trying to do what neither did well in those turbulent years almost a century ago.

Heart Attack Fatal

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Dr. S. Meigs Beyer, 83, president of the American Medical Association's 50-Year Club, died Tuesday of a heart attack while attending the association's annual convention. He had practiced medicine at Punxsutawney, Pa., for 57 years.

Scientists Building Largest Centrifuge

DOWNEY, Calif. (AP)—Scientists here are building what they call the world's largest centrifuge—a machine so big it can take four men on 30-day simulated space flights.

Two capsules mounted at any point on the 150-foot rotating arm each will carry two men, equipment and provisions sufficient for a month's spin, scientists say.

Researchers hope that studying human reactions to the prolonged rotation will give them clues on how man can live and work in space.
